165th Annual Convention

Journal of Proceedings

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA
MONDAY, MAY 2, 1949, 5 P.M.

The One Hundred Sixty-fifth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled at The Church of The Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, on Monday, May 2nd, 1949 at 5 P.M., in accordance with the Constitution and the Resolution of the last Convention.

The Bishop of the Diocese called the Convention to order and opened the session with prayer.

A Quorum being present the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Long was duly elected Secretary and the Rev. Dr. John R. Huggins was appointed Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

The Rev. William Roulston McKean presented the Report of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business which was adopted as follows:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by Title where feasible, and as an effort is to be made to transact the work of Convention in one full day, that discussion be curtailed as far as possible.

Should the Business of the Convention be not completed at 5:30 P.M. on Tuesday, May 3, 1949, a Recess shall be taken at that hour until 7:45 P.M. Should further time be required, Convention shall meet again on Wednesday, May 4, 1949, at 9:30 A.M.

The Rev. Albert O. Judd presented the Report of the Committee on Arrangements which was adopted.

The Chair noted the presence of the Retired Bishop of Arizona, the Rt. Rev. Walter Mitchell and invited him to a seat in the Chancel.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy as follows:

Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese but not entitled to vote in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in this Church, Wardens of Missions other than those entitled to send Deputies, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, including the Lay Members of the Standing Committee, the Officers of the Executive Council and the Executive Officer of the Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal City Mission, though not members, shall be admitted to seats and have a voice in the Convention, but not the right to vote.

The Secretary reported as follows:

That during the past year he has fulfilled his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons as far as possible.

On December 27, 1948 the Parochial Reports were mailed and that on February 1st, 1949 when these reports were due only 88 of the 209 had been received. The Secretary would again stress the importance of making full returns on the Annual Report of the Diocese for the General Convention.

On December 30, 1948 in accordance with the provisions of Article III of the Constitution, Bishop Hart called a Special Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, which met in the Church of The Holy Trinity, 19th and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia, on January 24, 1949, at 4 P.M.

On Monday, January 24, 1949, the Rt. Rev. Oliver J. Hart, D.D., Bishop of Pennsylvania requested the assistance of a second Bishop Suffragan in accordance with Canon 40, Section 1. Bishop Hart based his request for a second Suffragan upon the extent of the work and the need of additional Episcopal assistance in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The Convention gave its unanimous approval to the Diocesan's request, and instructed the Standing Committee to secure at once the consent of a majority of the Bishops and the several Standing Committees for the election of a Bishop Suffragan for the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The following resolution was presented by the Rev. Dr. Collins: On vote approved by Convention.

BE IT RESOLVED, That the Bishop of the Diocese, the President of this Special Convention, is hereby authorized to appoint a "Committee of Seven," communicants from the Diocese of Pennsylvania, four clerical and three lay, which Committee shall receive nominations for the office of a Suffragan Bishop. The Committee of Seven shall report to the next Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania from nominations received by them not more than five names as nominees of this Committee for the office of Suffragan Bishop.

On April 21, 1949 the Secretary mailed the report of the Committee of Seven on the nominations for the Suffragan Bishop to the Deputies of the 165th Annual Convention.

That under date of March 2, 1949 he sent out the Calls and other Documents for the 165th Annual Convention.

The boxes for the registration of the Clerical and Lay Deputies have been placed in the vestibule of the Church and all Deputies should register at once.

That on May 2, 1949 Parishes, Missions and Chapels of the Diocese entitled to membership in this Convention had not qualified as follows:

The Rev. Dr. Francis C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution, which on Motion was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the right of Representation in this Convention of those Parishes which have not sent Parochial Reports, or have not paid their Assessments, be declared forfeited; but that they be invited to present to the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats any facts which seem to them to justify a restoration of such rights of Representation; and, that the said Committee be instructed to consider such facts and make appropriate recommendations to the Convention; and that meanwhile the Lay Representatives from said Parishes be invited to take their seats, but to refrain from participating in the proceedings until the Convention shall have restored the right of Representation of their Parishes.

The Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, meeting at Holy Trinity Church in Philadelphia, May 3, 1949, hereby petitions the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, meeting at San Francisco, September 26, 1949, to consider, for the more efficient and effective administration of the affairs of the Church, appropriate changes in the Canons to provide that:

1. The General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America be held annually at some city centrally located within the continental limits of the United States.
2. The cost of the arrangements for General Convention, if held annually, to be a charge on the national budget of the Protestant Episcopal Church.
3. A reduction be made in the size of the clerical and lay deputations from each Diocese and Missionary District to General Convention.

The Rev. Thomas Meryweather offered the following Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on the Dispatch of Business:

WHEREAS the first Tuesday in May of each year is a day when many delegates, well qualified to act, find it impossible to attend the Diocesan Convention because of hours conflicting with their employment.

AND WHEREAS the importance of matters brought before the Convention is such that parishes should have adequate and full representation,

AND WHEREAS the future of the Diocese would be strengthened by having a changing representation of delegates,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this Convention, acting under the authority contained in Article 2 of its Constitution, do hereby set the date of the Diocesan Convention in the year 1950 as Friday, May 5th, sessions beginning at five (5:00) P.M. and that the sessions be continued on Saturday, May 6th, beginning at nine (9:00) A.M.

The Rev. J. Wesley Twelves offered the following Petition to General Convention, which was referred to the Committee on the Dispatch of Business:

Inasmuch as there is a wide difference of opinion, and many diverse interpretations of the Canon of the Church dealing with the remarriage of divorced persons, it is the sense of this Convention that a clarification of the said Canon is most necessary.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that this Convention petition General Convention to give further consideration and study to Canon 18, entitled "Of Regulations Respecting Holy Matrimony."

Mr. William White, Jr., offered the following Petition to General Convention, which was referred to the Committee on the Dispatch of Business:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the basis for fixing the Proportionate Share be changed to that of assessing each church on the number of Communicants reported to the annual Convention.

The Secretary requested the approval of the Convention of his action regarding the removal from the list of Churches in Union with the Convention the name of St. John's Church, New London (Kelton), St. Mary's Church (formerly Ascension) and St. Michael and All Angels. On motion the following resolution was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the action of the Secretary of the Convention in removing from the list of Churches in Union with the Convention the name of St. John's Church, New London (Kelton), be approved, and that he be authorized to also remove from said list the names of St. Mary's Church (formerly Ascension), and of the Church of St. Michael and All Angels, and hereafter to remove the name of any church organization of which the corporation has been dissolved, or which, though still incorporated, neither owns nor uses any regular place of worship, or holds no stated meetings for worship or makes no report of worship or work to the Convention; Provided, that in the case of any such removal he shall report his action to the next Annual Convention.

WHEREAS, the Committee on the Fund for the Episcopate, heretofore known as The Committee for the Enlargement of the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate, has operated since its establishment in 1943 under the authority of the Bishop alone, and in the view of the Bishop and of the Committee it is desirable that the authorization of the Convention be also given;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that Convention hereby confirms the establishment of this Committee under its new title "The Committee on the Fund for the Episcopate" and directs that it shall consist of such communicants of this Diocese, without restriction as to number, as the Bishop shall annually appoint.

The Report of the Corporation of Christian Work in Educational Institutions was presented by Title (Appendix T, page 328) by the Rev. Allen F. Kremer.

The Report of the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions was presented by Title (Appendix L, page 305) and the Chairman, the Rev. Dr. James M. Niblo offered the following Resolutions, each of which on Motion was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania approve the action of the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions in respect to increasing the amount of grants to Aided Parishes for the year 1949, to enable the salaries of the Rectors of such Parishes to be the same stipend as that received by Vicars and Missionaries.

In order to meet the cost of living, the salaries of Vicars, Missionaries and Rectors of Aided Parishes have been advanced from time to time either by grants or increasing salaries. It would seem that the time has come to make changes in the Resolution of Convention concerning this matter. Therefore be it;

RESOLVED, That after January 1, 1949, the minimum salary of Rectors, Vicars and other Clergymen, whose stipends are paid by the Diocese, be fixed as follows:

- A. At $2,700 (with Rectory or $300 for rent and pension premium) for the first year that a Clergyman has been in Holy Orders.
- B. At $3,000 (with Rectory or $300 for rent and pension premium) for the Clergyman who has been in Holy Orders over one year.

The Commission further asks Convention to permit an assessment on all

Parishes and Missions in 1950 for the same amount as for the year 1949, and presents the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess for the work of the Commission for the year 1950 the sum of $8,000.

The Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions further presented a communication from the President of the Church Pension Fund, The Rt. Rev. Cammeron J. Davis, concerning the employment of retired clergy.

The Rev. Thomas A. Meryweather offered the following Resolution, which on Motion was adopted by a vote by division Ayes 192, Noes 157.

WHEREAS the first Tuesday in May of each year is a day when many delegates well qualified to act find it impossible to attend the Diocesan Convention because of hours conflicting with their employment.

AND WHEREAS, the importance of matters brought before the Convention is such that parishes should have adequate and full representation,

AND WHEREAS, the future of the Diocese would be strengthened by having a changing representation of delegates,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this Convention, acting under the authority contained in Article 2 of its Constitution, do hereby set the date of the Diocesan Convention in the year 1950 as Friday, May 5th, sessions beginning at five (5:00) P.M. and the sessions be continued on Saturday, May 6th, beginning at nine (9:00) A.M.

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA

WEDNESDAY, MAY 11, 1949

The One Hundred Sixty-fifth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, reconvened in accordance with the Resolution of the Special Convention of January 24, 1949 and the Resolution of the last session of this Convention, at 9 A.M. on Wednesday, May 11, 1949 at The Church of the Holy Trinity, Philadelphia.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop assisted by the Suffragan Bishop, The Rev. David O. Trauger, The Rev. Walter M. Haushalter, The Rev. Hamilcar B. Hannabal.

The Secretary of the Convention reported as follows:

The Secretary requests that all Deputies who did not register last week should do so at once at his desk.

The Secretary presented the following motion which was adopted.

WHEREAS, The Nominating Committee for names for Office of Suffragan Bishop has furnished information to the deputies in regard to five nominees therefore be it resolved that there be no nominating speeches at this Convention but that there be allowed two minutes to a deputy desiring to give information about a person whose name is about to be placed in nomination.

Committee on Election reports:

In order that there be no misunderstanding in regard to nominations your committee presents the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED, That nominations for the office of Suffragan Bishop may be made from the floor after the tellers have reported on the first ballot. Nominations will be in order after each successive ballot.

The Committee on Elections reports further:

The Clergy vote at the Chancel end of the Church A to E on south aisle, F to L in center aisle, M to Z on north aisle. The Lay Deputies vote at the 19th Street end, Suburban and Missions on north side; Advocate, Philadelphia, to St. George, West Philadelphia, on center aisle, St. James, Hestonville, to Zion, Philadelphia, on south aisle.

The Parishes have one Lay Vote, i.e. the Lay Deputies must agree on their Candidate, and one Deputy deposit the Ballot.

When the Election is completed the Clerical and Lay Deputies must sign the Testimonial of Election at the Secretary's desk. We would suggest, if the Convention approves, that this might be done off and on during the counting of the Ballot, saving your time considerably. Of course no name will be on the Testimonial until the Election is complete.

The Committee on Elections offered the following Resolution, which on Motion was adopted:

In order that there be no misunderstanding in regard to making further nominations your committee presents the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED, That nominations for the office of Suffragan Bishop be made from the floor after the tellers have reported on the first ballot.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That nominations be in order after each successive ballot.

The Chairman of the Committee on Canons, The Rev. Dr. Hartshorne explained the nature of the Quorum required and the nature of the majority vote required for the election of a Bishop.

A Concurrent Majority is necessary to a Choice i.e. 115 Clergy, being one half of the 229 on the List compiled by the Bishop, and 79 Lay Votes, being one half of the 156 Parishes and Missions qualified to vote in this Convention.

But if less than two thirds of either Order be present then two thirds of the Votes of that Order shall be necessary i.e. only 152 Clergy voting requires 102 to elect; 104 Parishes and Missions voting requires 70 to elect.

Therefore it is important that the attendance be kept up until an election is accomplished.

The Bishop made several announcements concerning the voting and at 10:20 A.M. declared the polls open for the casting of the ballots for Suffragan Bishop.

The Bishop declared the polls closed at 10:45 A.M.

During the counting of the ballots the Bishop gave notice of:

- The Clergy Conference on June 14, 15 & 16 at Valley Forge Military Academy.
- The Diocesan Service on June 5th in the Church of The Holy Trinity commemorating the Book of Common Prayer.
- The Thanksgiving Day Offering for The Episcopal Hospital.
- A meeting for all Vestrymen on the return of the Deputies to General Convention in the Church of The Holy Trinity, Philadelphia.

LET US PRAY

O God our heavenly Father, we thank Thee for the light of the Gospel shining in our world. We thank Thee for all who have walked therein, and especially for those in whose lives we have seen Thy glory and beauty. May we know that whether in the body or out of the body they are with Thee, and that when these earthly days are come to an end, it is not that our service of Thee and of one another may cease, but that it may begin anew; through Jesus Christ our Lord who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

I want to thank the people of the diocese for sending me to the Lambeth Conference. It was one of the greatest experiences of my life. I went to the Conference wondering what the bishops would do for the five weeks in which they would be meeting together. I came back realizing that five weeks was all too short a time for the purpose in mind.

Men from all over the world were met together to consider the direction in which the Church should move. Each regional or national church can readily work out the procedure of how we should try to achieve the goal, provided we all know clearly the goal that we want to achieve.

I think that the truth applies particularly to the Episcopal Church here in America. We have been achieving some very good results on a promotional basis but we'll never go very far until the rank and file of our Church are convinced that the Church is the instrument of the living God for the setting forward of His reign on earth. Jehovah's Witnesses and the Mormons try earnestly and sincerely to bring others into their fellowship because they are convinced of their faith.

The supreme task of the Church today is to win the nations back to the knowledge of God revealed in Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour. Every man, woman and child has his part to take. But, if we are to be good soldiers in this campaign, we must put ourselves into training for it. We must be able to proclaim the truth of the Gospel in terms that men and women today will understand. It is not difficult to utter a modern catchword in modern language. Our task is to take the eternal truth of the Gospel and proclaim it boldly to our generation. We must see to it that our men preparing for the ministry have the soundest training possible. We must see to it that our young people have better opportunities—both on the parish and diocesan levels—to be well grounded in the faith. A well equipped Conference Center would not automatically insure that this would be done but it might well prove to be a mighty help in that direction.

On the evening of Whitsunday, June 5th, a great diocesan service of thanksgiving will be held in this church to commemorate the English Books of Common Prayer, of which the first was published in 1549. The Book of Common Prayer is a great missionary vehicle. It is a strong bond of unity throughout the Anglican Communion. It is our guide in public worship. Our diocesan committee has arranged a worthy service to mark the 400th Anniversary of the first English Book. I am looking forward to it eagerly. I hope very much that in our celebration of the 400th Anniversary of the first English Prayer Book we shall not overlook the serious spiritual impoverishment of our religious life due in some cases to the inability and in other cases to the unwillingness of the ordinary man to participate in the public worship of the Church. Whether the service be that of Morning or Evening Prayer, or the Holy Communion, it should be that of the entire congregation engaging in true group worship. Speaking of medieval worship, Professor Dawley pertinently says, "The popular notion that the Holy Communion was an act performed by the priest on behalf of the people helped to restrict the worshipper to murmuring an Ave Maria or a Pater Noster while the supreme corporate act of Christian worship was reduced to recitation by one man. The outreaching evangelical power of the liturgy was thus denied the majority of medieval folk. Lacking the highest means of self-offering of the whole man to God—which is the essence of all true worship—it is not surprising that men sought release in a multitude of superstitious beliefs and practices.”

Someone has asked, “Isn’t it a striking coincidence that fuzzy ideas about public worship go with fuzzy ideas (or no ideas at all) about the Church’s Mission?” The answer is that it is no coincidence. It is the same disease. As I go about the diocese, I am happy to find congregations engaging in true group worship. Wherever I do, I find congregations who are interested in missions and active in evangelism. I find also that the sense of Christian community is being fostered and developed.

The first disciples met, not just to pray as a collection of individuals but to pray together. Their common worship was indeed a sacrament of brotherhood. Today many would interpret the Christian religion as an individual affair that has little to do with its group expressions. Christianity is a family affair. We cannot share with Christ unless we are willing to share with one another. Christian worship is the adoration and prayer of the entire family of God. It is obviously not the worship of the entire congregation where Morning or Evening Prayer is mainly confined to the chancel and becomes a sort of duet between the minister and the choir. It is equally true where the offering of the Holy Communion is not a corporate act of the assembled church.

Corporate worship is the basis of the Church’s life. Our parishes may vary in their organizations and societies; their ritual may be elaborate or simple; their church building large or small, but the quality of their worship is determined by whether it is group worship or an individualistic affair.

The very large congregations throughout the diocese during Lent is a most hopeful sign. Many of our laymen are taking an increasing interest in church activities. It is not something which we clergy have imposed upon them. It is due in part to the desperate needs of our day and the recognition that the Church is responsible for the character of the Nation. If the Church is to meet this responsibility, it will require the intelligent and enthusiastic work of all its members. Wherever our lay people catch the vision and accept the responsibility, they are an irresistible force.

I want to thank the Clergy and Vestries for their wonderful cooperation throughout the year. I discovered in January that a great many of the Vestries did not understand that it was the joint responsibility of the Vestry and the Clergyman to have the Annual Parochial Report in the hands of the Bishop by the first of February. When I made this fact known, the Vestries co-operated and we had all the Reports, save seven, in my office by the first of April. In previous years, some of the delegates have brought the Reports to the Convention in May. Next year I think we can have most of the Reports in hand by the first of February. This will give us more time to make an accurate survey of the Diocese before the Convention in May.

I realize that the method of communication in the Diocese is very poor. I had a meeting with a Vestry this winter and they were kind enough to say that they had obtained information about diocesan affairs which they had long wanted. I reminded them that I had written about most of the things from time to time in my column in the Church News. None of the Vestrymen had read my column. Indeed one of them asked, “What is the Church News?” The fundamental heresy in the Episcopal Church is to think that because the thing has been said, it has been done. I am not laboring under any such illusion. A group of laymen have agreed to help me develop a better method of communication. They are willing to visit Vestries or Men’s Groups in Parishes and talk with them personally about diocesan plans and opportunities. We are indebted to the faithful women of the Church for their program of education which they have carried on continuously for many years. It is most encouraging that our laymen are asking to be informed in the same way.

With the election of a second Suffragan Bishop, I am confident that we can have a more co-ordinated Diocesan Missionary Program. I want to pay the strongest tribute that I can to the work of the Deans and the volunteer leaders in the various Convocations. The work has grown to such proportions that we can no longer expect a man to give direction to the work of a Convocation on the spare time that he can take from an already full job as Rector of a Parish. I hope that the Convocations will continue to function, but the Deans should be relieved of many of the pressing duties which they have so wonderfully assumed. I hope also that the elections of a second Suffragan Bishop will free me for visits to Parishes and Missions on occasions other than for confirmation.

At the General Convention this fall one of the major issues will evidently be the Church Pension Fund. Various memorials have been sent to General Convention from Dioceses and Missionary Districts. They range from a demand that the Church provide a minimum pension of $130. a month to each retired clergyman to the suggestion that the Pension Fund be dissolved and the funds divided among the various Dioceses, allowing each Diocese to develop its own plan. I feel certain that the General Convention will consider these proposals and act in a constructive manner. The fundamental difficulty is that the Clergy salaries are low and, therefore, the pensions are inadequate. We are greatly blessed in this Diocese in having the help of the Jefferies Trust and the Christmas Fund. From the Jefferies Trust we are supplementing the pensions of 16 Clergymen, and from the Christmas Fund 6 Clergymen, 11 widows, 1 Deaconess and 1 daughter. Obviously the best way to remedy the situation would be to increase the salaries of the Clergy, but until that is done, I am convinced that we should keep increasing the Christmas Fund so that we can help out in needy cases.

APPENDIX B

Convention Address Suffragan Bishop

We live in a tumultuous world. Both individuals and nations are faced with the problem of adapting their thinking and their living to new conceptions of economic order, international relations, and social theories. In the midst of this changing world stands the figure of a victorious Christ bidding His followers help Him establish a Kingdom in accordance with the will of the Father. Christ needs no new organizations nor Utopias. We should pray, "Create in me a clean heart and renew a right spirit within me." All He wants is new life and understanding of His message and plan. In Him was life and that life was the light of the world.

ADAPTATION TO CHANGING NEEDS

The characteristic of all life is adaptation. Throughout the long history of the Church, it has shown an amazing ability to adapt its forms and its Message to the needs of successive generations. If the churches now find that the old skins are no longer able to contain the new wine of a changing world, they only follow the Master when they adapt modes of expression and organization which interpret anew the principles of the Kingdom. What we need is Christ-filled men and women capable of penetrating our confused times with new spiritual insights. The call is for leaders: persons of stature, strength, and undying loyalty. We must put God back into all our affairs and stop choosing those areas in which He is to be sovereign. I am reminded of those splendid lines of John Davidson:

"The inbred fault and meanness of the time
In art, in thought, in polity, in trade
I charge directly to the ruined will
That neither takes nor leaves the Omnipotent
Creator of the Immortal Soul of man:
Heaven, hell, the Cross of Christ and all that once
Was great in Christendom when God meant God."

We charge you above all at this Convention to be sensitive to the call of the Spirit upon Whom we must depend for wisdom, counsel, and ghostly strength. Let us not be moved by prejudice or the sin of complacency, unwilling to adventure for a Christ Who bids us launch out on the deep. What adaptations must we make within the framework of the Church in order to become more effective agents?

THE CHURCH FACES A CRITICAL SITUATION

Time was when the "rector" was the key man of the parish. He directed most of the organizations; he produced most of the ideas and, alas, found Himself immersed in a multitude of practical and financial details that might better have been left to laymen. The Church has grown in communicant strength very rapidly. The present capacity of our theological seminaries cannot possibly keep up with this expansion. Already there are many more actual parishes or potential parishes than can be filled by the handful of clergy coming out of our seminaries. Obviously, the Church is going to suffer a tremendous loss unless we adapt our methods both in recruiting and training more effective leadership in the Church.

THE CALL FOR TRAINED LEADERSHIP

I have the hope that the immediate crisis may be met through a new type of parochial leadership; one in which the clergy become more willing to pass on some of their responsibilities to laymen and laywomen in their various cures. If a clergyman has a parish of 1000 communicants or 400 families, it becomes almost impossible for him to give adequate pastoral care in connection with his other duties and the constant demands made upon him. He is confronted with two alternatives: either he must train his laymen to do some of his tasks or else hunt around for one or two curates to carry on the work under his direction. With the shortage of clergy within the Church at present, the latter course seems unrealistic. In so far as the general welfare of the Church is concerned, it must be remembered that every curate who goes to a large parish makes one less man who might be doing pioneer service in opening up new work.

The cure for this problem seems to lie in better administrative policies for the parish. However, the mere application of business principles to the work of the Church is not enough. Christ called on key men to keep open the doors of His Kingdom and He is still calling. Leaders in the wider fields of Diocesan and National Church work must be recruited and partially trained in the parish. Only when the parish is organized and each person finds his place in service for Christ can the Church go forward. The parish is the training ground both for the future candidate for the ministry and also for the lay leadership of the Church.

I think, therefore, our problem comes to us with greater clarity. For many years the women of the Church have trained themselves very largely for the effective use of their abilities; however, laymen have been more difficult to recruit because they are preoccupied with many other duties; also, they are quite shy about taking over responsibilities either in evangelism or in religious instruction. They have been wont to say, "That's the rector's business and I do not feel competent in that field." Perhaps the rector has been a bit jealous of some of his prerogatives or has not felt he could give the time or had the patience to tell his laymen how to go about their work. Could this be one of the reasons why so many vestries think that their only service to the Church can be rendered in matters of finance and property? Many men's organizations in the Church only succeed in adding just one more to the many luncheon clubs or discussion groups which our modern life has produced. The times are too urgent and the need for the Christian message too imperative for the Church to be satisfied with just another organization.

THE GROUP AND DISCUSSION METHOD

There is a method which I think could be used in parishes with somewhat startling results. We know of a number of parishes where the emphasis has been placed upon the development of a group or groups of men and women which have become training centers both for instruction in the fundamentals of the Church's teaching and life and the application of Jesus' principles to personal religion and the solution of our social, economic, and political problems. The Church will not become really effective until each man accepts the role assigned him under God and the compulsion of his confirmation vow to follow Jesus Christ as his Lord and Saviour. I'm constantly amazed at the wisdom of the Church in providing for the growth and enlightenment of its membership as each one goes on in his Christian living. We are to continue in our allegiance and daily increase in God's Holy Spirit more and more until we come into His everlasting Kingdom. We emphasize the training of confirmation candidates, but how many of us in the ministry continue that training so that through the varying experiences of life judgments and decisions are penetrated with the Spirit's teaching. This accounts for many of our lapsed members. When the day of testing comes, they are too immature from a Christian point of view to heed the Church's teaching or to know how to pray so that our Lord can talk to them.

I have been much interested during the past year in receiving thoughtful letters from some of our laymen with reference to the programs of service for men. They have felt that primary emphasis should be upon the need to deepen the devotional life rather than simply to engage in good works. Attendance at Corporate Communion once a month is excellent and to be encouraged. However, it is not enough; real evangelistic work for Christ must be undertaken. The training for this art comes only through the practice of it. Laymen need this training as do the clergy. Shyness must be overcome through education and practice if laymen are to become in a real sense missionaries. Our laity seldom have learned to put into practice the Church's doctrine of the priesthood of all believers. Faith is a very private thing and yet it must be shared for that is the meaning of the Church, but most of our people have not learned how to share it. This is the real problem of evangelism in the Church. I have the feeling that if in every parish we had groups in which the art of prayer, meditation, and personal religion were being taught the Church would go forward with new impetus. God's power in the world can only be released when He finds persons whose habits of devotion and character have led them to become instruments of His Divine Will.

One of the first requests of Jesus' disciples was, "Teach us how to pray." If our Church is to become not merely a form but a force in the world, we shall have to train ourselves and our people to live in constant touch with the sources of that power. The Good News must be proclaimed not only from the pulpit, but it must be understood and practiced by every person pledged to Christ's following.

A DIOCESAN CONFERENCE CENTER

Any scheme to strengthen our program of advance should present some practical plan which is central to the training of our membership. This requires a common meeting place. At present we have no such center belonging to the Diocese and under Diocesan control. There are many parishes who know little or nothing about our institutions or our Diocesan missionary work. Other Dioceses throughout the Church have found new life in the creation of a Diocesan Conference Center.

To the efforts of the rector to train leaders for parochial tasks must come the added strength, understanding and inspiration to do great things for the Diocese and the National Church. The spiritual leadership of all our Bishops in the Church will be released when there are more key men ready to help open the doors of the Kingdom. When we work, pray, and study together, not as congregations but as a great Episcopal Church, we will have greater corporate unity and advance a cause to which we are pledged by our baptismal and confirmation vows.

VISITATIONS

With reference to my visitations to parishes and missions, I have taken my share with Bishop Hart in an ever increasing number of confirmations and other services. Confirmations in our Bishop's Chapel, Church House have increased so that last year I held 34 services, confirmed 177, and received 13 from the Roman Catholic Church. Many rectors are bringing their adults to these services on Monday afternoons at 4:00. There are many persons who need to be confirmed at times other than the regular dates set for the Bishop's visitation. One of the results achieved has been to make the confirmands feel that they were taking their vows not only as members of individual parishes, but as members of a great Diocese and a great Church.

The wider use of the Bishop's Chapel has been a source of much gratification to your Bishops. Besides confirmations, we have had a number of communions, baptisms, and weddings. Daily prayers at noon are carried on throughout the year except during July and August. There are more than nine hundred Intercessors adding their prayers for persons and special needs.

I conducted a Mission in St. Martin's, Radnor for a week and also gave the same parish five evening lectures on the Prayer Book followed by questions and discussions. If your Bishops could be released for more of these intensive efforts, much good might be accomplished. I have addressed a number of parish dinners, vestries, and been in the receiving line on many receptions following visitations.

In June last year, I helped lead a week-end conference for laymen under the auspices of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. I conducted a course for our Youth Conference at Haverford College and made addresses at other young people's gatherings throughout the year. The future of our Diocese is largely in the hands of the coming generation and it is in their gatherings particularly at Summer Conference that leaders must be recruited and trained.

DIOCESAN INSTITUTIONS

My relationship with Diocesan institutions has continued in about the same way as in the past three years when the Bishop asked me to act as deputy for him on the Boards of some 23 institutions and agencies. It is my hope that an Executive Director of the Department of Christian Social Relations will be able to take over much of that work, thus releasing me for many other important duties; however, that has not seemed possible at this time.

One of the important tasks facing the Diocese is our care for the aged, an increasing problem in these days. I am hoping to make a study under the direction of the Rev. Arnold Purdie of the National Council of the over-all care of our aged and the relationships now existing between our own agencies and those of other churches. As a result of that study, we may be able to find ways and means for more adequate care of aged men as well as women in the Diocese. At present most of our homes for the aged have reached the limit of their capacity and have long waiting lists. Something surely should be done about this matter.

CHRISTIAN WORLD ORDER

My report as Chairman of the Committee on Christian World Order appears in the Appendix of this Journal. However, something must be said about the effect of World Relief on the winning of the "Cold War." Personal charity is never cold, particularly when it is accompanied by letters and messages. It is the best way of breaking down barriers of hate and misunderstanding. Our Lord told us, "If thine enemy hunger, feed him." A righteous and just peace will never be won until Christians follow the command of the Master.

It is impossible to give statistics on the number of tons of food and clothing which have been collected and sent by the parishes of the Diocese. We are not thinking now about the money given for Church World Relief or the Presiding Bishop's Fund, but we are mindful of the generous time and labor given by many women and men who wrapped in each package or bundle a message of cheer, love, and good will.

When our Lord fed the five thousand, He did not question the character of the throng, nor the lack of faith on the part of the disciples. "He commanded the men to sit down." Twelve baskets of fragments were gathered up afterwards and they are still there at the call of our faith, the example of a small boy, and the blessing of a loving Father. Can we do more than to expect great things of God and then go on adventuring in His ways until by our good deeds we put to silence the ignorance of foolish men.

APPENDIX G

Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, 1948

The report of the treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for the year 1948, audited by Charles S. Rockey & Company, certified public accountant, is submitted herewith.

The year 1948 witnessed a continuance of the trend of meeting our obligations both in the Diocese and to the National Council. The record shows, among other items —

Payments on accepted proportionate shares, $353,377.39. In this category 113 churches and missions over paid, 54 paid in full, 26 paid less than accepted and three, which had not accepted, made contributions. The net overpayment was $6,478.70, a good record when one considers that in 1947 contributions to the Episcopal Hospital were credited on the proportionate share.

Contributions to the Presiding Bishop's Fund were $112,964.01, an increase of $9,566.49.

Designated gifts for the Episcopal Hospital totaled $30,620.06.

Our pledge to the National Council of $211,862 was paid in full, an increase of $8,757.98 over 1947.

Forward steps in the Diocese included —

An appropriation of $8,650 to satisfy the mortgage on St. Philip-in-the-Fields Mission, Oreland.

An allocation of $5,000 for the rectory, Trinity Mission, Solebury which, with previous years authorizations made a total appropriation of $15,000 from Mission Funds to this project.

The unexpended balances of $8,000 for new work in the 1947 and 1948 budgets plus $10,000 from the balance in the 1948 Mission Funds were designated for Ascension Mission, West Chester.

These results, of which the Diocese can feel proud, are witnesses to the consecrated efforts of the clergy who have been the instruments of inspiring the laity.

The Financial Secretary, Mr. Isaac Leech, continues to be of great help to all.

The Church House staff have labored long, hard and unselfishly in their efforts to do their part. They deserve our thanks.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK R. DRAYTON,
Treasurer

APPENDIX H

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

This Department was advised during the past year that "The Committee on Administrative Needs was reviewing the work of the Department of Missions and will be prepared to report at the next annual Convention."

Since discussions have taken place rather generally looking toward changes in the functioning of this Department, we deem it appropriate to make clear the manner in which this Department is at present functioning.

The present Chairman is a presiding officer who confers with the Deans from time to time and meets with committees appointed for special purposes within the Department. The real Executives of the Department of Missions and Church Extension are the Deans themselves who carry on their programs after conferences with the Bishop, who is, of course, the Chief Missionary of the Diocese. Recommendations of this Department are made by the Chairman to the Executive Council of the Diocese which makes final decisions upon the recommendations. The experience of history indicates that these methods have produced excellent results in church extension and in the solving of sectional and parochial problems. The whole work of this Department has been made more effective by surveys and recommendations made by the Board of Strategy. But a growing conviction has been manifested that this Department would be even more effective under the direction of an Executive Chairman with direct responsibility to the Bishop and Executive Council. In order to clear the way for possible changes, when these discussions began, the present Chairman of this Department verbally presented his resignation to the Bishop, who asked him to continue as Chairman until pending discussions with reference to the reorganization of this Department were concluded and had resulted in action.

In our last report we recommended "That parishes in the city assign themselves the task of evaluating again their work and surveying their present fields so that they may even now, in the present, look into the future and plan for vigorous continuance of their work in their present locations or in other parts of the Diocese." Since that time surveys have been made in all of the Convocations and recommendations with respect to new sites, mergers and changes of location of some city parishes have also been made.

As will be noted in the reports of the Deans of the several Convocations, new sites have been purchased, new work has been begun and is being carried on successfully in the outlying Convocations, and plans have been presented and discussed with reference to change of location of some city parishes.

As a result of the recommendations made at the last Diocesan Convention, the three Philadelphia Convocations met together informally for consideration of their common problems.

We note that a conference of church workers among Negroes was held at St. Barnabas Church in the early part of October.

From time to time reports have been made to this Department setting forth the necessity for the purchase of new sites in unchurched sections of the outlying Convocations and of particular needs for new buildings to strengthen the work already established. This has already resulted in the purchase of a desirable site of about three acres in Penn Wynne and active negotiations elsewhere.

We note that the Rev. Fred B. Halsey has been elected Dean to succeed the Rev. Dr. Niblo who has served the Convocation of Norristown for many years with great effectiveness and ability.

Whatever changes are made in reorganizing this Department, we feel it a privilege to pay tribute to the faithful and effective work of our Deans who have devoted so much time and energy in the midst of heavy parochial duties to further the church extension work of the Diocese.

It should be clear from the foregoing and from the reports made by the Deans themselves that the work expected of the Department of Missions and Church Extension is enormous and requires constant oversight and direction and wise planning.

CHARLES E. TUKE,
Chairman

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

For the past three or four years there has been a definite indication of a new trend in religious educational thought in our diocese. This became very pronounced and quite apparent when the Executive Committee of the Department met in extended sessions the latter part of 1947 and in January of 1948 to evaluate the work and aims of our department. There was a general feeling that in the years to come there will have to be a greater emphasis on bringing our religious educational training to the parish level, in order to do better work in the fields of teacher training, adult education and parent-home cooperation, as well as our work with the Church's youth. Steps in that direction have been taken and programs have been and are being worked out accordingly. Independent of, but parallel with our conclusions, the National Department, after giving the whole field of Christian Education most serious consideration, had come to the same general conclusions. This was most gratifying to us and underlined the immediate general program for our department. It is our intention to watch closely the next steps taken by the National Department of Christian Education in New York and cooperate with them to the fullest extent possible and practicable.

The need for a conference center will become more and more acute as the years go on. In order to enable us to do the best possible work in training teachers and leaders in the various parishes, it is essential that a center be secured.

During the past year our Executive Secretary, Miss Beryl M. Newman, has made visits to many of our parishes to observe their Church Schools while in session; to help with reorganization and the planning of curriculum; and to meet with the teachers. She has also met with parish youth groups in order to assist them in organization and program planning.

The reports of our various committees are as follows:

The Adult Committee,

The Rev. J. Wesley Twelves, Chairman

The Guild of the Little Children began as an experiment in the field of Parent Education about three years ago, is now an active organization with its own committee. Under the leadership of Mrs. H. Burland Patterson, guilds have been established in about fifty parishes of the diocese. The Committee acts in an advisory capacity in the forming of parish guilds and recommends suitable educational material to help parents of young children to teach religion in the home.

During the year a thorough study was made of the Adult Educational material of other religious bodies, looking forward to some similar material from our own church.

The Adult Committee was responsible for the Episcopal Exhibit in the Free Library of Philadelphia on the Parkway. Prayer Books, historic documents, pictures and other interesting material about our church was on exhibit for two weeks, and attracted a steady stream of visitors. The exhibit was held during the month of March.

The Committee prepared and distributed articles on the Lambeth and Amsterdam Conferences, and assisted in arranging the program on these conferences at the School of Christian Education held in October.

An experimental endeavor was made in the spring with several parishes participating to learn how best to conduct Adult Study Groups. The "Cell" idea in study groups was tried out.

The Committee cooperated with the National Department of Christian Education in setting up, in our diocese, Family Study Groups on Successful Marriage and Christian Family Life. Over fifty parishes indicated that they would conduct such study groups during the season of Epiphany.

The Church School Committee,

Miss Elizabeth Jenks, Chairman

In the spring of 1948, the Church School Committee cooperated in the work of the Committee of Reference in preparing an Agenda for Teachers' Meetings—a manual for teacher training on the parish level.

The Church School Institute in October was centered around the present situation in the field of Christian Education—the plans of the National Council, the challenge to us as a diocese and to the individual parishes. Dr. Heuss gave a very comprehensive talk to the entire group at dinner and to the clergy and superintendents in the evening conference period. Teachers of the various age level groups met with leaders to discuss more fully the challenge and how to meet it now.

The members of the Church School Committee acted as leaders in the "Workshop for Teachers" at the Fall Session of the School of Christian Education.

The Church School Committee, in cooperation with the Special Offerings Committee, again prepared a Lenten Guide, this year on Puerto Rico, the 1949 Mission study theme. This is done to help clergy, superintendents and teachers in making the needs of our fellow citizens in this important area come alive to the boys and girls of our Church Schools.

In order to evaluate the "planned agenda" idea for teacher training on the parish level, the committee has planned to make a detailed follow-up with those parishes participating in this teacher training project. The Committee also stands ready to help in planning sectional institutes for Church School teachers and leaders.

Church School by Mail,

The Rev. John C. Knewstubb, Chairman

During 1948, 311 children were enrolled in the Church School-by-Mail, which was an increase of 169 over the total at the beginning of the year. During the year, 19 became affiliated with the nearest Sunday School, some moved, and others outgrew the work, leaving 255 on the roll at the end of the year. There are 183 in Chester, 46 in Germantown, and 25 in Norristown Conventions.

Two hundred and fifty-six visits were made, and 133 children found in 5 new districts, with the aid of 11 drivers. Lessons were mailed to each child for every Sunday, and 60 per cent responded with return question sheets. There were 9 baptisms and 4 confirmations. Two hundred scholarships were received from parishes and missions. A Lenten Offering of $28.12 was received from the families.

In the Parish Participation Program there are five parishes with Church School-by-Mail assistants who mail and correct the lessons, under the direction of the Diocesan Worker, Miss Dorothy E. Kohl, and who, in some cases, visit the families. These parishes are Holy Trinity, Lansdale; St. James, Downingtown; Holy Trinity, West Chester; Trinity, Coatesville, and St. John's, Concord.

Committee on Special Offerings,

The Rev. W. Roulston McKean, Chairman

This committee, as its name implies, is concerned with special offerings of the Church Schools. The Lenten Offering, of course, is the largest and most widely supported in this diocese. As a matter of record, 183 Church Schools out of 191 participated in the 1948 offering which totaled $60,845.59. The offering was presented on May 23rd, at what has become the greatest annual service of worship in the diocese, the Presentation Service held on the grounds of Episcopal Academy. The Rev. Nathanael B. Groton, D.D., was the speaker and approximately 1200 vested children of Junior Choirs in the diocese were in the colorful procession.

The Lenten Guide for Church School Leaders was again prepared jointly by the Church School Committee and this committee. Its aim is to assist the clergy, superintendents and leaders to so plan their Lenten program that Lent may be a season of growth, spiritually and educationally and the offering recognized as the vehicle of sacrifice.

The Advent Offering for 1948 was $832.92 and was given toward the purchase of lighting fixtures for the new building of the Ascension Mission, West Chester.

The Birthday Thank Offering amounted to $85.94. The 1947-48 B.T.O. project was for "Jeeps for Bishops" in China, Japan and the Philippines.

Our Church Schools, under the direction of Mrs. Lorin Blodget, Christmas Box Secretary, sent approximately 900 gifts to Indian and rural missions in North Dakota and rural missions in Virginia; $50.00 to the Church Schools of the Dominican Republic; and gifts to children of our own diocesan institutions and missions where such were requested.

Committee on Vacation Church Schools,

Miss Eleanor A. Deane, Chairman

Approximately thirty of our parishes in 1948 took advantage of idle summer months and planned a program of worship, study, service and recreation for the children of their parishes and communities. The Vacation Church School is a very effective means of Christian Education; it can, because of the length of the periods (2½ to 3 hours daily, for approximately three to four weeks), provide a well balanced program where the children can experience a real Christian fellowship.

The department aided, financially as well as with counsel regarding organization and curriculum, seven parishes and missions. Some of our parishes cooperate with other Churches in planning a community school, while others plan a parochial school and invite the children of the community to attend.

Miss Eleanor A. Deane served as the official department Vacation Church School visitor to those parishes aided by the department.

Committee on Weekday Religious Education,

Dr. Henry J. Gideon, Chairman

This Committee of the Department of Christian Education was appointed six years ago at the suggestion of the late Helen C. Washburn to make a study of weekday religious education on released time in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Miss Washburn became chairman and selected representative clergymen, educators and lay persons to aid her on the committee. Under her direction the first three years were devoted to the study of the parish-type weekday school; the results of this study were published in pamphlet form in 1945 and were widely distributed.

The Committee then began a three year study of the community-type school. Miss Washburn's untimely death in January, 1946, was a grievous loss to the committee. The study, however, had been so well outlined by her that it was possible to proceed as planned. The promised supplement to the original report has been completed and is now ready for distribution in pamphlet form.

This supplementary report again emphasizes the growing sense of need for more and better religious instruction for our children. The need is felt not only in our diocese but everywhere throughout the nation. The Committee believes that weekday schools on released time may under favorable circumstances be one way to meet it.

The report includes much factual material in regard to the community-type released time schools in the diocese outside the city of Philadelphia. Authorization to set up such schools in Philadelphia even on an experimental basis has not been granted by the Board of Public Education.

So much criticism has been directed against the public schools for their lack of spiritual emphasis that the Committee deemed it advisable to include a section on spiritual values of a religious nature which have actually been found in our public school programs.

Throughout the report the Committee has endeavored to be objective in its presentation so that readers may know the facts as revealed in a six year study.

Committee on Visual Aids,

The Rev. Charles B. Mauch, Chairman

An increasing number of parishes throughout the diocese are recognizing the value of the use of visual aids in their educational program. The Tri-purpose projector for slides and filmstrips has proven to be the most effective and least expensive of projected visual aids. Our rental library of slides, filmstrips and equipment has more than doubled in size during the past year, and there is an increasingly large number of parishes availing themselves of these facilities.

The Chairman of this committee has been available for consultation, advice and talks on the use of visual aids in the Church's educational program and has been much in demand throughout the diocese.

The Commission on Youth,

The Rev. John Vander Horst, Chairman

Early in 1948 the Youth Commission, realizing the imperative need for a youth worker in this diocese, recommended to the department that they request of the Executive Council permission to secure a youth worker in 1949. This was done and included in the department's budget for 1949 was a sum to be used for a part-time youth worker.

This Commission publicized and promoted, in the diocese, parish observance of "Youth Sunday" and sent in an offering of $347.18 for A.U.J.E., the Puerto Rican counterpart of our United Movement of the Church's Youth.

At the School of Christian Education we held a series of panel group discussions on phases of youth work, with the Reverend Mr. Paul A. Kellogg of Dover introducing the series. In the spring there was held the annual Diocesan Youth Convention at Episcopal Academy, for which the Reverend Dr. James A. Pike, J.S.D. journeyed from Poughkeepsie to be the principal speaker. Members of the Youth Commission served on the teaching staff of the Youth Summer Conference, held at Haverford College under the leadership of the Reverend Mr. Aaron Manderbach. Girls' Friendly "Holiday House" at Cape May was made available to us for a weekend of briefing of twenty-one members of the Youth Council, in order that they might be better prepared to go out as inspirational-educational teams to assist in establishing youth work in those parishes, throughout the diocese, that do not have any organized youth work, or those needing help in their existing groups.

These five youth enterprises were culminated in an all-youth diocesan Service held on the evening of the First Sunday in Advent at Holy Trinity Church where, despite inclement weather over 500 of our young people assembled with a choir of 50 in a great service of worship, at which Bishop Hart was present and the Rt. Reverend Donald B. Aldrich, D.D., Dean of Religion at Princeton University, gave an outstanding address on "The Courtesy of Christ."

It is apparent that the youth work grows in the diocese as our youth each year take on more responsibility. They now write their own column in the Diocesan Church News, as well as having undertaken a survey of existing youth organizations, throughout the Diocese, on the parish level. It is in the parish, after all, that youth must be effective, if we are to be effective at all. The Youth Commission, Youth Council, and Convocational District Councils all realize this and it is toward this end that we bend our efforts in the increase of youth work.

Summer Conference Committee,

The Rev. Aaron Manderbach, Chairman

The Annual Summer Conference for Young People was held July 5th to 10th. Because we have no Conference Center of our own, it was necessary for us to once more look for a suitable place to hold the conference. Haverford College proved to be very satisfactory. It is more secluded than any of the previous sites of our conferences, and has a large and beautiful campus. In numbers this Conference was one of the smallest we have ever held, there being 105 students enrolled, with a faculty and staff of 26. The most inspiring part of the conference was the spirit which developed. Perhaps it is directly attributable to the size of the conference, but whatever the reason, if this was not the finest we have ever held, it ranks with the very best.

We look forward to obtaining our own Conference Center, where it will be possible to conduct a series of smaller conferences for the various age levels and interest groups.

School of Christian Education Committee,

The Rev. Herbert W. Jones, Chairman

This committee has as its chief responsibility the planning for the diocesan schools of Christian Education. These schools cover many phases of adult education and the committee therefore works closely with those committees and organizations in the diocese concerned with the Christian education of adults. Because it is very apparent that the most effective means of education are those geared to the parish level, and in some instances, sectional level, the committee decided, at least for this year, they would plan for only one big school on the diocesan level, and put their efforts and thinking into planning ways and means of reaching greater numbers through sectional and parish programs. This committee will also study closely the results of the department's experiment for teacher training in the parish, through the use of Planned Agendas for Teachers' Meetings (The Teacher Training Guide "Toward a Better Understanding of the Church's Faith").

The Fall Session of the School of Christian Education was held on six Tuesday evenings, October 12th through November 16th, 1948, with an enrollment of 163, with 64 parishes represented. This was again a fine School. The weather was generally good and the attendance kept up during the entire period.

We owe a deep debt of gratitude to the Rev. Stanley Brown-Sermon, D.D., of Virginia Seminary who gave to the assembled school a course on Liturgy and Life, to those outstanding leaders of our Church and other Communion who came to speak on the Lambeth and Amsterdam Conferences, and to diocesan leaders who led courses on the Church's Faith and Practice.

Committee on Reference,

The Rev. Charles F. Ehly—Chairman until June

Miss Maude Cutler, Chairman

An outcome of the evaluation of the work and aims of the department was the request to this committee that it prepare a study unit on the Church's Faith, that could be used in the parishes, for teacher training and also for small groups of adults. This request resulted in the preparation of the unit "Toward a Better Understanding of the Church's Faith" which was presented to the clergy at Bishop Hart's Clergy Conference on Christian Education on June 8, 1948, at Episcopal Academy. The planning of this conference was the responsibility of this committee; the speaker, the Rev. Robert R. Brown, rector of St. Paul's Church, Richmond, and member of National Council, presented the thinking and planning of the new National Department of Christian Education, and members of the committee presented diocesan plans.

In closing this report may I again express my deep gratitude to the more than one hundred and twenty-five volunteers, clergy and lay members, representing almost half of our parishes and missions—large and small, urban, suburban and rural. Together with the various chairmen they have contributed much to the Department in 1948, and their unselfish giving of time and talent made it possible to keep our Department among the leading Departments of Christian Education in the Episcopal Church.

Respectfully submitted,

PETER C. VAN DER HIEL, JR.

Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

The year opened with the Department organized and operating under the able Chairmanship of the Rev. E. Felix Kloman.

The recommendations of the Survey of 1947 which were presented to the 1947 Diocesan Convention and the action of that Convention in authorizing a full-time Executive Secretary remained unrealized. Instead, the Department was granted an operating budget of $1300.00, consisting for the most part of sums specifically earmarked as contributions to various groups allowing but $500.00 for promotion, education and office expenses.

It was therefore necessary for the Department to continue its work on a voluntary basis. Miss Florence Davies, former head of the Burd School for Girls, agreed to act as part-time secretary without compensation.

The first activity of the Department was the discussion led by Mr. G. James Fleming, Vice-chairman for Social Action and Education, of the report of the Committee of the President of the United States on Civil Rights. Copies of the report were distributed to the parishes and missions of the Diocese and it was planned to sponsor a meeting at which the Presiding Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Henry K. Sherrill, a member of the President's Committee, would be invited to speak on the report. This meeting was held at Holy Trinity Church on March 18, at 5:15 P.M., preceded by a period of intercession led by Bishop Remington. The meeting was well attended and gave needed emphasis to this remarkable document and to the cause which it espoused.

Better inter-cultural relations were emphasized by the Department and the Rev. E. S. Thomas and the Rev. Allen Kremer; and their Committee took responsibility for stimulating better race relations throughout the Diocese by sending letters, holding meetings and distributing a questionnaire.

The Department supported the Fair Employment Practices legislation before the City Council, joining many other groups in this action.

The Department evinced keen interest in the problem of the Episcopal Hospital and submitted a resolution to the Special Convention called to consider this matter.

The Rev. J. G. Armstrong and Mrs. George A. Trowbridge and their Committee on Church World Service were active in stimulating the collection of clothing and in preparing to meet the problem of Displaced Persons as well as urging adequate support of the Presiding Bishop's Fund.

Mental Health engaged the attention of the Department and of its committee in this field. The Rev. Robert D. Morris, Chaplain of the Episcopal Hospital and now Chairman of this Committee, attended the International Mental Health Congress in London, England, in the summer of 1948 and subsequently reported to the Department. The Department was fortunate in its unofficial representative at this important meeting.

The relationship of the Department to the various social agencies and institutions of the Diocese has never been clearly defined. The Rev. Arthur L. M. Worthey accepted the Vice-chairmanship of the Department for Social Agencies and Institutions and plans are under way to bring a closer rapport between the Department and the social institutions of the Diocese.

In April Dr. Kloman resigned from the Chairmanship of the Department on account of ill health and the consequent necessity of curtailing his extra activities. This action was received with great regret by the Department. Dr. Kloman is loved and respected, and his wide knowledge of the field of Christian Social Relations and his competent devotion to its problems is greatly missed in the Department's leadership.

To succeed Dr. Kloman the Department elected Dr. Albert Lindsay Rowland which election was confirmed by the Executive Council. Dr. Rowland re-appointed the chairman of the several committees as constituted by Dr. Kloman. Moving toward the realization of the recommendations of the Survey of 1947 and through consultation with the Bishop and with the approval of the Executive Council, the sum of $2,000.00 was made available for the employment of a part-time secretary. Miss Florence Davies was elected to this position. The office of the Department was re-established at the Church House and the meetings of the Departments following the summer recess have been held at the Church House. Through the effective cooperation of the Department of Christian Social Relations of the Woman's Auxiliary under its able Chairman, Mrs. Francis R. Packard, provision for luncheon at these meetings has been made.

Recognizing the necessity for dedicating ourselves to God's will two corporate communions with Bishop Remington as celebrant have been held, one in the Chapel at the Church House on December 1, and the other in conjunction with the City Mission and the Seaman's Church Institute on January 11 at St. Paul's Chapel at the City Mission.

At the suggestion of Bishop Remington and with the approval of Mrs. Packard a liason committee was appointed for cooperation between the Diocesan Department and the Department of the Woman's Auxiliary with special reference to the problem of Displaced Persons. The Committee consists of the Rev. Leonard B. Rasmusson, Chairman, and Mrs. George A. Trowbridge for the Diocesan Department and Mrs. Maitland Bottoms and Mrs. Franklin Royce for the Department of the Woman's Auxiliary, and has already begun to function.

The policy of the Department will be to implement the recommendations of the Survey authorized by the 1946 Convention of the Diocese. This Survey of the needs of the Diocese in the field of Christian Social Relations was made and presented to the 1947 Convention and is now in printed form. Its recommendations, seven in number, have in part been met and will require some years to meet in full. Meanwhile changing conditions may in some instances hasten and in others perhaps alter the program.

There is still the need for a full-time, qualified Executive Secretary without whose competent and continuous professional leadership it is impossible to achieve the full measure of success.

The basic purpose of the Department will, however, always remain to extend the social vision and to enlarge the social service of the Church in the light of the spirit of Christ Jesus that each is his brother's keeper and all are children of one Heavenly Father.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT LINDSAY ROWLAND,

Chairman

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

The Department of Finance met bi-monthly except during the summer of 1948 and gave constant thought and study to the many financial problems confronting the Diocese throughout the year.

The Committee on Financial Safeguards, a sub-committee of the Department of Finance, with Mr. Edward B. Clay as Chairman, has met during the year, and their report will be found elsewhere in the JOURNAL.

The Department notes with pleasure that all bills of the Diocese, and its Expectation to the National Church for 1948, have been paid in full.

Because of over payments and lapsed balances the Department was able to appropriate twenty thousand dollars for missionary work in the Diocese.

JOSHUA ASH PEARSON,

Chairman

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

There were a number of outstanding events of general interest in Church activities in the Diocese which demanded and received the attention and co-operation of the Department. While the initiation of news releases may not always begin in the office of the Department, that office is invariably consulted for details, corroborations, and explanations. The Episcopal Hospital news during the year is an example of this. The editors and reporters of the secular papers refer again and again to the Director of the Department, while the national papers depend upon us to sift out the facts and make them available.

The Church made the headlines in connection with the political conventions of the two major political parties held in Philadelphia. Bishop Hart preached a special sermon at a pre-convention service in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square, and the Churchwoman's Club held receptions and conducted an "open house" in its club rooms for Church women attending the political conventions either as delegates or visitors.

When the Department of Christian Social Relations invited the Presiding Bishop of the Church to speak at a special service in Philadelphia, the Mayor of the City, the Bishop of the Diocese, members of the Standing Committee, and other representatives of the Church met Bishop Sherrill at Broad Street Station and transported him with a police escort to the Church where he was to speak, to the accompaniment of headlines and photographs in the newspapers.

The Church's growing participation in radio communication was most marked in this year. There was the remarkable arrangement for congregations to hear the radio address of the Presiding Bishop as they worshipped in their respective churches on "Leap Sunday," raising the year's quota of the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief in a single day. Then there were the broadcasts of "Great Scenes from Great Plays" which began on the first Friday evening of October and continued on through the year. Advertising was arranged for the religious pages of the Saturday newspapers, and each week many inquiries were handled in connection with these weekly broadcasts. Our department co-operated in arrangements for local clergymen to make specific announcement concerning invitations to worship in particular churches.

Lambeth Conference, before, during, and after, was the subject of much news interest; the display of historical Church documents, pictures, and publications at the Philadelphia Free Library; the spiritual conferences for laymen during Lent arranged in the six convocations of the Diocese; to say nothing of the many significant anniversaries, ordinations, institutions of Ministers, obituaries of eminent Churchmen, appointments and appearances of our Bishops—all these and many more were the subjects of news releases from the Department of Publicity to the secular newspapers and national Church press. Scrap books of clippings from all these publications maintained in the office of the Department are an interesting revelation of the extent to which the Diocese of Pennsylvania has been in the news.

Parallel with this general work of the Department is the publication month by month of THE CHURCH NEWS, which has operated economically and effectively in presenting a wide range of news in the Diocese from all of its parishes, missions, and institutions. While production costs have increased, the price to the subscriber remains unchanged and the appearance and contents of this magazine have been maintained on the same high level which has characterized it throughout the thirty-nine years of its service to the Diocese.

In closing this report we take this and every opportunity to ask the co-operation of all our churches, rectors and congregations to help us realize Bishop Hart's goal that every Church family in the diocese should subscribe to the Church News.

R. MARSHALL TRUITT, Chairman
Department of Publicity

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PROPERTY

A letter was written to the clergy in June requesting information about surplus property which might be on hand in their parish or mission with the object of redistributing such things as might be available. Subsequently the committee on Church Furniture had an organization meeting and a report will be submitted shortly by them.

The new rectory at Trinity, Solebury built under the supervision of the Department, is about completed.

We have purchased a piece of ground in Penn Wynne for the establishment of a parish or mission and have co-operated in the proposed arrangements for the establishment of a parish at Gladwyne. We have also purchased a lot at Somerton Avenue and Depue Street for use of St. Andrew's Chapel, Somerton. Several members of the Committee have visited various sections of the Diocese in connection with future development.

Two properties are now under consideration as possible locations for the Conference Center and it is hoped that a decision may be reached during 1949.

Sundry repairs in all sections of the Diocese have been supervised by the Committee, details of which may be obtained at the Church House.

The Church House was maintained in good physical condition.

RONALD J. MCCARTHY,

Chairman

THE FIELD DEPARTMENT

The important event in the life of the Field Department of our National Church, as well as the Diocese of Pennsylvania, in 1948 was the Radio Program "Great Scenes from Great Plays."

Two years ago the Department refused to go along with this program, but in doing so we felt we were not cooperating with the National Church. A representative of the Department attended the Provincial Meeting in Washington in the Spring of '48 and his report helped us to revise our decision in regard to the program.

We invited Robert Jordan, who is the Director of the Field Department of the National Church, to speak to the clergy of the Diocese. He did so and many of the brethren were convinced that we should give this program a trial.

The reaction has been of varying kinds. Many have approved of the program. Many have disapproved. Those who approved have sent in what in many instances was a very considerable offering. The result being that the Diocese has given for the first twenty-two weeks something like $15,000.00. We were expected to give much more.

We have inquired from many of the clergy what results were obtained in their parishes. Taking the Diocese as a whole, there was very little response that we can see. The intangible results may justify the program, but it seems to the Department to be the consensus of opinion that the Radio Program was an expensive experiment. We now wait to see what the General Convention will do with the idea before we commit ourselves any further.

The Field Department wishes to express its appreciation to the clergy and the Every Member Canvas Chairmen for their wholehearted support of the Diocesan program for the extension of Christ's Kingdom throughout the world.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCIAL SAFEGUARDS

Progress is steadily being made in the Committee's efforts to have the Parishes and Missions comply with Canon XVI. Our latest figures show 131, or 65 per cent, that are now complying in full with this Canon.

In order that all vestries can be made aware of the provisions of Canon XVI, the Committee is endeavoring to give publicity to its actions. To that end, an article was published in the Church News January 1949 issue, outlining the functions of the Committee. It is also proposed that a letter go out during the year over the signature of the Bishop, addressed to the Secretary of each Vestry, requesting the Secretary to read the letter at their next regular meeting, reminding them of their obligation to have proper Parish records kept, and accounting made to comply with our Church Canons.

Digests of Diocesan Canon XVI, and General Canon VI, will be sent to all Rectors and Accounting Wardens, after the next General Convention.

At the Special Diocesan Convention held on January 24th, 1949, the following resolution was presented to the Convention. "Inasmuch as Canon V of the General Canons requires that the Parochial Report be in the hand of the Diocese by the first of February, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that all congregations be notified by the Committee on Financial Safeguards that hereafter the Parochial Report be presented by this date and that the financial statement, if an audit has not already been made, be signed by the Auditor or Accounting Warden, stating that the financial books of the Congregation were audited and found correct last year and will be audited as soon as possible."

This was done to facilitate the work of the Accounting Wardens, as due to the very short time involved, it has been difficult for them to have the Parochial Reports prepared, and Audited, by February 1st.

It is earnestly requested by the Committee, that all Accounting Wardens, who have not yet reported the status of their compliance to Canon XVI, do so at once. Friction and discord in certain Parishes have been caused by non-compliance with this Canon, and this could have been avoided had the provision of the Canon been properly carried out.

Mr. Isaac E. Leech, the Financial Secretary of the Diocese, has been most helpful during the past year in meeting with Vestries, and ironing out their financial problems. He is willing to appear at Vestry Meetings when requested.

EDWARD B. CLAY,

Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON RECRUITING FOR THE MINISTRY

The Commission made grants to three students to help them meet their seminary expenses.

A Conference on the Ministry was held for college and high school senior year students at St. Mark's, Frankford, June 11th. Bishop Barry, Coadjutor of Albany, spoke on the subject of Rural Work of the Ministry. There were fifty students and clergy present. A second Conference for the same student group was held at the Philadelphia Divinity School October 15th, with Bishop Hart in charge of the program. Forty students and clergy were in attendance.

In 1948 five deacons and nine priests were ordained in this Diocese. There were in that year forty postulants and three candidates for Holy Orders.

The Living Church report for the whole Church for 1948 shows a decrease of nine in the ordinations of deacons, and a decrease during each of the past three years in the number of priests ordained, there being only one hundred forty-three ordinations in 1948, this being the second lowest report in the past twenty-five years.

There are in the United States and Overseas Missions 7,864 parishes and missions, an increase of one hundred twenty-four over 1947, while there are only 6,506 clergy, a gain of only sixty-three, to minister to these congregations.

These figures indicate that while the parishes and missions are increasing, the number of clergy is not by any means keeping pace with the imperative needs of the Church. This is a critical situation which must be taken seriously to heart by parents, vestrymen and parochial clergy, each of which group bears a direct responsibility in this problem so vital to the growth and well-being of the Church.

WM. NEWMAN PARKER,

Chairman

CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

Much progress has been made in the missionary work in the Convocation of Chester during the past year.

Bishop Hart appointed Rev. John K. Coolidge Vicar of St. Alban's, Newtown Square.

St. Mary's, Chester, continued to be in charge of Rev. Mr. Van der Hiel, Rector of St. Paul's, Chester. Rev. Mr. Knapp, a senior in the Divinity School, and an Assistant at St. Paul's, is in charge of the services.

Rev. Charles Snowden has been appointed Vicar of All Saints, Darby.

St. Luke's, Eddystone, has been ministered to by several clergymen until a permanent man has been appointed.

St. Luke's, Highland Gardens, Chester, has been built and is ministered to by the clergy of St. Paul's, Chester. Services were started for the children September 19th. There are something like 150 children enrolled in the Church School. Regular Church services will be held sometime during the present year. The Rector and Vestry of St. Paul's Church seized the opportunity that has existed at Highland Gardens for the last five years. Their faith in this project will be amply rewarded in the years to come. A site has been purchased at Penn Wynne. One of our large City churches plans to build a Chapel on the site. If they fail to do so the Diocese will have the opportunity of starting work in this community as a mission.

The Womans' Auxiliary of the Convocation held their Spring and Fall Meetings, at which was manifest real missionary enthusiasm. The Treasurer of the Auxiliary paid their pledge of $2500 toward the building of the new fabric at Ascension, West Chester.

The Executive Committee of the Convocation has made definite plans for the building of Ascension, West Chester, and expects to start work Easter Monday, 1949. The new building is made possible by the parishes and missions of the Convocation and by a special gift of $10,000 from the Diocese.

Regular meetings have been held by the Executive Committee through the year, planning for the development of our missionary work. I am indeed grateful to them and the Officers and Members of the Womans Auxiliary for their enthusiastic support of the Missionary Program of the Convocation.

CHARLES W. SHREINER, Dean

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Chester held its two regular meetings in the Spring and Fall of 1948. The Spring Meeting, on May 20th, was held in West Chester at Holy Trinity Church, with a splendid attendance of almost three hundred women. As always, our day starts with the Service of Holy Communion, after which we proceed to reports from the various Departments of the Woman's Auxiliary. Dean Shreiner reviewed the accomplishments of the Convocation in the past years, and challenged us to renewed Missionary efforts for the future. Our present objective is to raise money to build a new Church of the Ascension in West Chester. The women of the Convocation have pledged $2,500 annually, which amount was raised and sent to the Treasurer.

The Dean then expressed his appreciation to Mrs. Gawthrop and the other retiring officers for their excellent work during the past three years.

Mrs. Grafton Burke, the speaker of the day, gave us a vivid picture of life at the Hudson Stuck Memorial Hospital in Alaska. Her husband, Dr. Burke, was in charge of the Hospital for many years.

The Fall Meeting, on October 21st, was held at St. Paul's Church, in Chester, with a very large attendance and much enthusiasm. Bishop gave us his impressions of the Lambeth Conference stressing the vital importance of the Episcopacy. He told us of the new vigor to our own Episcopal Endowment Fund under the Chairmanship of Mr. Clarence Brown.

The various fields of service in The Woman's Auxiliary were presented to us, each with its forward-looking plans, these plans to be carried by the delegates back to the individual Parishes.

Dean Shreiner spoke at the close of the morning session, laying before us the plans for the future of our Convocation and at the same time inspiring us to greater efforts on behalf of our present project, Ascension Mission, West Chester.

Mrs. William Remington was the speaker after lunch. She gave us a beautiful and helpful talk on "Personal Religion."

CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

In the Journal of 1941 the Rev. Dr. Eder, at that time Dean of the Convocation wrote, "A year in the life of a Diocese or Convocation is so short a space of time that it is difficult to outline in detail any marked difference in growth that appear within so short a period. Dioceses and Convocations do not grow with mushroom growth, but by steady day-by-day spade work and gradual results that endure. One must look at them from the standpoint of decades to appreciate the month-by-month and year-by-year advancements that are being made." That is eminently true; and the same thing can be said of 1948. I feel that steady and persistent growth has been shown by most of our Missions and that the Vicars have done good work in their various posts. This program is shown in greater devotion to the church and its services, and in increased givings to the Church and its work. Our Missions have shown a marked increase in Baptisms, Confirmations and Communicants in the past year. That is as it should be.

The Convocation, which has been steadily increasing its offerings for the missionary work of the Church, took as its Proportionate Share in 1948 the sum of $90,759.00; and gave $94,371.06. For this we thank them.

We are glad to report the completion of another of our objectives, namely, the erection of the rectory for Trinity, Solebury. The Diocese has been most generous in its help. The building of this house makes possible for the first time in the history of that Mission a resident Vicar. The Bishop appointed the Rev. Walter K. Malone, and a great step forward has been taken.

Ascension, Rhawnhurst, under the leadership of the Rector of St. Mark's, Frankford, has shown splendid progress. They still need another story to their building and we should help them acquire it as soon as possible.

During the year we purchased a tract of land adjoining the present property of St. Andrew's Mission in Somerton in order that there might be sufficient land for the further physical development of that plant. St Andrews' is a parochial Mission of St.

Luke's, Bustleton, and we are hoping that the Rector and Vestry of that Parish will be willing to work with us in that rapidly growing neighborhood.

Trinity, Buckingham, and St. Philip's, New Hope, under the earnest guidance of the Rev. Roderic Pierce, have shown definite progress.

Incarnation, Morrisville continues to do aggressive work under the capable supervision of the Rev. William T. Warren.

The Bishop has appointed a layreader, Mr. Arthur Musson to look after the work at St. Paul's, Edgely, with the Rev. Mr. Warren giving the necessary priestly supervision. The Mission is showing growth.

The work at All Saints, Fallsington, and Grace Hulmeville, has been steadily carried on by the Rev. Oliver E. Newton.

During the Summer of 1948 the Rectors and people of Grace Church, Mt. Airy and St. Matthias made a house to house survey of the "Temple Stadium Area." They did a magnificent piece of work which will be invaluable in helping us to determine what should be done in that section. As yet, no final decision has been made.

I feel that if the Diocese were to really get behind one or two of our more promising Missions in a financial way for a few years they would by that time be able to become Parishes.

The Executive Committee of the Convocation held several meetings during the year to plan for the Missionary work of the Convocation, and I am exceedingly grateful to them and to the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation for their earnest interest and support.

We look forward to 1949 as a time when together we may do much of the extension of the kingdom.

WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Germantown held four meetings during 1948, the first being an Educational Workshop on WORLD EVANGELISM at St. Matthias Church on January 20th from 11 to 3 o'clock. The day was headlined by Mrs. U. Grant Beath, the new President of the Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary, who presented the spiritual approach and Miss Avis Harvey, Educational Secretary from Church Missions House, New York, Methods and Materials available.

The Annual Devotional Day took place at St. Bartholomew's, Wissinoming on March 16th, opening with Holy Communion, the Rector, Rev. Raymond A. Gill, celebrating. The Rev. William Russell, former Rector of St. Stephen's Church, Wilkes Barre, and now connected with the American Friends Service in Philadelphia, gave the Meditation. In the afternoon business meeting, after hearing the presentation of missionary needs in the Convocation by Dean Caley, the Convocation Auxiliary voted $1,000 to the Building Fund of Ascension Mission, Rhawnhurst, half to be paid at once and half in the Fall. $600 was voted for car expenses of the new Vicar at Solebury, $300 for Dean Caley's car and also up to $200 was voted for the Summer Conference Scholarships. The Rector also spoke after luncheon on his experiences at the Holy Cross Mission in Liberia.

The May 18th meeting at Grace Church, Mt. Airy, was a combined meeting with the men of the Convocation, beginning with Holy Communion. The afternoon session took the form of an Annual Meeting, with Annual Reports of Chairmen, Mrs. John Slemmons, Promotion Chairman, urged that every parish Auxiliary strive to be on the Honor Roll, and announced that three Auxiliaries had joined the list of those three already on the Honor Roll for reaching higher standards of competence and efficiency and devotion, making a fine increase, but still a long way to go.

The October 9th Meeting, again a joint meeting with the men of the Convocation took place at St. Timothy's, Roxborough. In a five till six P.M. business meeting, Convocation needs were again discussed under the leadership of Mrs. Henry J. Gideon, Chairman of Missions for the W. A. of the Convocation in the absence of the Chairman, Mrs. Fred Rogers, Educational Chairman, presented Miss Bessie Love who spoke on her Baptist Missionary Work in Puerto Rico.

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

Advent Mission, Hatboro and St. Aidan's Chapel, Cheltenham have become independent parishes during the year. All of the Missions have shown a marked increase in contributions and subscriptions. Almost without exception, encouraging gains have been reported in the numbers of communicants and families and in Church School enrollment.

Christ Church, Upper Merion and the entire Convocation have been saddened by the death of the Rev. James Hart Lamb, Jr., Rector since 1925. He will be greatly missed.

The Rev. William H. Cumpston, after two years of faithful and effective work at Trinity, Gulph Mills, has had to relinquish his position as a result of reaching retirement age.

Splendid progress has been made towards the securing of a much needed rectory for St. Philip-in-the-Fields, Oreland. Thanks to the work of the Rev. N. B. Groton, D.D., of St. Thomas, White-marsh, a total of $3,125 for this purpose has been given by the members of the Convocation, $500 of this coming from the people of St. Philip's, and $400 from the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation.

WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

Two meetings of the Woman's Aid were held during 1948. In May we met at St. Paul's Church, Elkins Park.

The October meeting took place at All Hallow Church, Wyncote. The business meeting of the Woman's Aid had a fine attendance. At this meeting the sum of $400.00 was given to St. Philip-in-the-Fields, Oreland, for their building program.

Two educational days were held during Lent, the first at St. Paul's Church, Elkins Park and the second at St. John's Church, Norristown. Both programs were well attended and both of these Parishes have our thanks and gratitude.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNE K. LEPPER,
Chairman

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The Episcopal Hospital, which is within the bounds of this Convocation, has entered into arrangements with the University of Pennsylvania, whereby it will continue to serve the people of the Northeast and the Diocese, and render the same splendid medical service.

All Souls' Church for the Deaf, on 16th Street above Allegheny Avenue, has not only taken on new spiritual life, but renovated the buildings, under the new Vicar, the Rev. Otto B. Berg. They have also paid their assessments and missionary apportionment.

At the present time, four of our churches are without rectors or vicars—St. Luke's, Kensington; St. Barnabas, Kensington; St. Ambrose; and St. George's, Richmond. With the devoted service of lay readers, and assistance of non-parochial clergymen, they are all successfully carrying on their parish and missionary work.

After a ministry of nine years at St. Bartholomew's church on Lehigh Avenue, the Rev. John Gillespie (who was also secretary of this Convocation) was called to St. Bartholomew's, Wissinoming (which is in the Germantown Convocation). The new secretary of the North Philadelphia Convocation is the Rev. Robert Scott Harris.

Bishop Hart appointed the Rev. George B. Krantz as the new vicar for St. Bartholomew's, in Advent 1948. The Rev. Mr. Krantz has spent most of his ministry in Pennsylvania, his former charge being All Saints' Church, Darby (Chester Convocation).

In accordance with a request and resolution of our 1948 Diocesan Convention, the three Convocations of North, South and West Philadelphia were called together in a trial joint session, meeting at the Church of the Advocate, on Friday, October 8th. Mr. Francis J. Chesterman, President of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, and the Rev. Robert R. Brown of Richmond, Va. gave splendid addresses on how to meet some of the problems of our city parishes.

It was the unanimous agreement of the representatives of all three Convocations that the needs of the Diocese can best be served, for the present at least, by continuing to function as three separate Convocations, under their constitutional boundary lines.

A large part of the negro population is moving into North Philadelphia and warrants serious study and strategy, in order to serve these people well.

We desire to thank the members of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation for their loyal cooperation and wonderful assistance.

The meetings of the Convocation for 1948 were held at St. Paul's, Aramingo and at the Church of the Advocate.

WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

In reviewing the year just passed I am indeed grateful for many things—capable and faithful officers; a helpful cooperative Executive Committee; larger attendances and greater interest shown at the meetings; organizations and the very helpful and sympathetic direction of Dean Murray.

In January we were guests of the Women of St. George's, Richmond. After a delicious luncheon Miss Buckley conducted a very interesting educational program our guest speaker being Mrs. Victor Perrin, Diocesan Chairman of Christian Education, whose subject was "World Evangelism." Pictures shown by the Rev. B. J. Rudderow enabled us to visualize more clearly conditions as they exist in other countries.

As usual the delegates contribute very generously to the Church School by Mail; Youth Conference; the Episcopal Hospital May Fete; Blind day; financial aid to our missions when needed; and not neglecting their own parish interests.

Working cheerfully for others and happily together is the motto of the women of North Philadelphia Convocation.

Respectfully submitted,

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The resignation of the Rev. Frank W. Bonyng, as Dean, was accepted with regret in October, 1947.

This Convocation met with the Convocation of North Philadelphia on September 28th to hear Rev. Dr. Allen Evans, Mr. Chris Wyld and the Bishop speak on "How a Layman Can Help His Parish." The meeting was held in Trinity Memorial Church.

The Convocations of North, South and West Philadelphia met early in October, 1948, to discuss merging these Convocations. The Convocation of South Philadelphia met on October 26th, at All Saints' Church, and voted in favor of retaining its present boundaries.

The Rev. John R. Logan, Jr., resigned as Vicar of Holy Spirit Mission and the Rev. Hamilcar B. Hannibal, the new Rector of the Crucifixion, was appointed by the Bishop as Vicar of this Mission.

The Bishop appointed the Rev. Lemuel Dade as Vicar of St. Philips Mission in November, 1948. We welcome these two new Priests to the Convocation and we pray that under their supervision these Missions will grow strong in spirit and in numbers.

The Rev. Francis Roseboro continues his work at St. Elizabeth's, 16th and Mifflin Streets.

We express our regret on learning that All Saints' Church, 11th Street and Snyder Avenue, has voted to move from our Convocation.

We are indeed grateful to the members of the Executive Committee of the Convocation for their advice and assistance in helping us to face the problems in our section of the city.

We desire to thank the Woman's Aid to the Convocation of South Philadelphia for its loyalty and cooperation in the work of our Convocation.

The Convocation met at Prince of Peace for the May meeting and at All Saints' for the October meeting.

Dean

THE WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The Woman's Aid held three meetings in 1948. In January we met at St. Peter's Church. Mrs. Maitland Bottoms spoke on Church World Service. At this meeting a resolution was passed to place the name of Annabel Bonyng in the Book of Remembrance, and the sum of $43.00 was given as a Memorial for work among the Indians, in which Mrs. Bonyng was particularly interested.

Our May meeting was held at the Chapel of the Prince of Peace, Mrs. Beath and Mrs. Remington both attending. The amount contributed for the Episcopal Day for the Blind amounted to $162.00. The sum of $50.00 was given to the Episcopal Hospital. Provision was also made for Summer Bible Schools in two churches. The Garden Party Fund, amounting to $171.00, was given to the Church of the Crucifixion and Holy Spirit Mission.

The Fall meeting was held at All Saints' Church. Mrs. Beath, Mrs. Gideon, Chaplain Ward and Mr. E. D. Stone, gave short addresses. $45.00 for Christmas treats for children in three parishes was allocated.

The growth of a happy Christian fellowship in our Convocational group, the splendid attendance of delegates and others interested in the continuation of the Church's work in South Philadelphia, have been a source of encouragement and joy to us all.

THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

During the year 1948 we have seen considerable progress in the Missionary Work of the Convocation, and I am grateful to those in charge of the Missions for their effective leadership, and to the Mission congregations for their loyal support.

Under the leadership of Mr. Kenneth Rodgers, a student at the Divinity School, the Congregation of St. Titus has maintained its interest and activities, and there has been no receding. The community presents certain unique problems, and the Church is greatly needed. It is hoped that before long a resident worker may be given the opportunity of developing needed programs for the young people.

St. Monica's, the Rev. Matthew W. Davis, Vicar, is showing great signs of growth—both spiritually and numerically. There is an increased attendance at the services and a renewed interest in the various organizations. At the beginning of the year each organization took upon itself a project for raising funds to finance its work, and these projects have been most successful.

The Men's Fellowship, the Woman's Auxiliary, and the Rector's Aid Guild have provided many improvements for the Mission. A Sunoco Electric Water Cooler was recently installed by the Guild, and new hymnals were purchased by the Vestry.

During the year St. Cyprian's Mission has shown marked advancement under the wise leadership of Mr. Raymond S. Mitchell, a Divinity School student. The largest Confirmation Class in the history of the Mission was presented to the Bishop, the Church School has shown steady growth, and there has been a splendid increase in attendance at all services. The organizations have been increasingly active, especially the Woman's Auxiliary and the Altar Guild. A new guild for young girls, called "St. Anne's," has been organized. This new organization hopes to sponsor supervised activities in the field of sports, ceramics, knitting, sewing and woodcraft. There is still much for which to look forward, but what has been accomplished is a sure indication of a thriving mission.

I am most appreciative of the work of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation, and express my hearty thanks to the officers and members for their cooperation and real helpfulness in the work of the Convocation.

WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The outstanding meeting of the year was the Annual Education Day held on January 23, 1948, at St. James, Kingsessing. Mrs. Braun, Educational Chairman, arranged a fine program around the topic "World Evangelism." In the hands of the three speakers, Mrs. Strawbridge, Mrs. Disston and Miss Perrin, "World Evangelism" became real and vital; something in which each woman has a part and towards which all have an inescapable responsibility. This meeting was so inspirational it set the keynote for the entire year's work.

The three regular business meetings of the Woman's Aid were held at St. James, Kingsessing, Church of St. Barnabas and St. Mary's, Hamilton Village. Attendance is good but efforts are being made to get more regular attendance from every church in the Convocation. Since the effectiveness of the work depends upon the steady growth of the treasury, the Chairman of Ways and Means, Mrs. Arthur Drake, is constantly devising new ways of raising money. The Annual Card Party, January 14th, was held at Church of the Holy Apostles and Mediator. A luncheon and demonstration was given on April 20th at Bulletin Homemaker's Building. During the summer, all members' worked hard at turning over a dollar to increase until October. This is called a "summer project." Returns are made at the October meeting with brief reports as to how the "talent" was increased.

The devotional work of the Aid is under Mrs. Crema. The Annual Quiet Day was held at St. James, Hestonville, February 26th.

As usual, contributions were made to Elizabeth Price Martin League, Episcopal Hospital May Fete and Episcopal Day for the Blind.

The main financial responsibility is to maintain the Scholarship at the Philadelphia Divinity School, which the Woman's Aid has supported for several years.

The Annual Party was given at the Church of the Holy Apostles and the Mediator, and was a real success. After all expenses were paid, we cleared a sum of $106.00!

TREASURER'S REPORT shows a balance of $84.17 for October 21, 1948.

REGISTRAR'S REPORT shows attendance of 194 Delegates for the three meetings.

APPENDIX I

REPORT OF THE REGISTRAR

The canonical duties of the Registrar have been duly performed throughout the year; and numerous requests for certificates of Holy Baptism, and of Marriages and Burials, from the registers of closed parishes, have been complied with insofar as the records were available. All matters relating to clerical biographies and parochial history have now been referred to the Committee on Parochial History.

There has been deposited in the Church House vault some additional report matter from the War Commission of 1941.

The attention of all officers of diocesan organizations and institutions is called to the importance of preserving the official books of record and other documentary papers of said organizations. In case of dissolution, the said books and papers should be turned over to the Registrar as soon as possible thereafter for permanent storage.

In making out certificates of Baptisms, Marriages and Burials, from the registers of closed parishes, the Registrar sometimes finds that the signatures of officiating Ministers are lacking, or that ditto marks are used in lieu thereof, or that a parish clerk has written in the Minister's name, per initials. He would therefore respectfully advise that each record of an official act on a parish register should bear the personal signature of the Minister officiating, in order to give it legal validity.

Respectfully submitted,
H. W. GERNAND, Registrar.

APPENDIX J

REPORT OF THE CHURCH FOUNDATION

CONVENTION OF 1949

At the present time The Church Foundation is trustee in 108 different funds and is acting as agent for the Bishop in four funds, and as agent for the Executive Council in two funds, or a total of 114.

Since the last report to the Convention The Church Foundation has received the following:

NEW FUNDS

The Nimrod Maxwell Burial Lot Fund for
St. Mary's, Warwick	$ 100.00
The Helen Elizabeth Comfort Crookshank Fund for
St. Luke's, Newton	20,134.65
The Elizabeth Price Martin
Fellowship Fund	13,060.96
The St. James', Philadelphia (Green
Ridge) Fund	40,000.00
	$ 73,295.61
Additions to existing funds	31,500.80
Total	$104,796.41

The largest single increase in any existing fund was in the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate, being $20,168.72, due largely to the efforts of the Diocesan Committee on the Increase in that Fund. There was also received in this Fund the proceeds of a life insurance policy on the life of the late Rev. Leicester C. Lewis, S.T.D., which policy was taken out when many similar policies were placed on the lives of various individuals in the campaign, some nine years ago, for raising money to pay off Mission mortgages. In that campaign subscribers were given endowment policies on the life of anyone they might select, the amount secured and payable at maturity or death to the persons or objects named by the subscribers, the Diocese agreeing to pay the premium until death or maturity. Some 11 of these policies were made payable to the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, and the policy on the life of Dr. Lewis was one of them, and because of his lamented death recently, $750 was received for the Endowment Fund for the Support of the Episcopate. That Fund amounts to $203,320.19 at the present time.

WORK FOR THE DIOCESE

The Church Foundation's office acts for the Diocese in the matter of purchases and sales of Diocesan properties and in the care of title papers and insurance policies on Diocesan properties (including Missions), and in general supervision of the fire insurance coverages on such properties, and, with the authority of the Diocese, arranges for increases in the same when necessary. Where The Church Foundation holds title to parish properties it also takes care of the title papers and insurance policies in connection with such parishes, and keeps in touch with them in the matter of advisable changes in coverages.

In this work sometimes rather astonishing things come to light. In the case of one Mission there was discovered a forty year old $2,000 perpetual fire insurance policy of which neither The Church Foundation nor the parish authorities had been aware for more than thirty years, so that if there had been a fire no claim would ever have been made for such loss. We were able to substitute a new policy in place of the old policy for the same amount without any expense. In another case it was discovered that a parish was carrying four times as much insurance on the contents of their church as they could have recovered if the same were totally destroyed. In another case there was turned up a perpetual fire insurance policy more than a hundred years old written in the name of a Church which had been defunct for several decades and also in the name of a person who must have died longer ago than that. It is where policies are left in the keeping of individuals that such things can happen, and there is no real protection against their happening.

For these services a small annual charge of $7.50 is made, which goes entirely to the Fiscal Agent which provides the safe-keeping facilities. In the case of Missions this charge is paid by the Diocese, and in the case of Parishes they are billed for the same. This system makes all title papers and insurance policies instantly available for information, whereas when such papers are in the custody of treasurers or wardens there is often vexacious delay because of the absence of someone who alone can get them out of a safe-deposit box.

THE CONSOLIDATED INVESTMENTS FUND

It is the policy of the Directors, where possible, to invest all the assets of all the funds in units in the Consolidated Investments Fund. However, in a small number of cases this is either not possible under the terms of the trust, or is undesirable because the principal of the trust is expendable. When new trust funds come in to The Church Foundation the cash is invested in units in the Consolidated Investments Fund, and the securities are either taken over into said fund in exchange for units therein, or are sold and the proceeds used to buy units in the Consolidated Investments Fund at unit values, which are based on the then market value of the securities in the Consolidated Investments Fund. Securities in the Consolidated Investments Fund are appraised quarterly in March, June, September and December of each year. The values of the Units are based on these quarterly appraisals, and purchases of Units can be made at any quarterly period. The wide diversity of the investments minimizes investment risks and affords stability of income, which is a particularly desirable feature in the investment of smaller funds.

All purchases and sales of investments of Church Foundation funds are made by order of the Committee on Investments, members of which will be found listed on the last page of this report, and only after investigation and recommendation by a Sub-Committee. All such purchases and sales are reported to the Board of Directors at its next meeting.

The totals of book value of securities and cash held in the Consolidated Investments Fund for the past three years have been as follows:

March, 1947.....	$1,560,153.95
March, 1948.....	1,878,631.56
March, 1949.....	2,046,321.08

Earnings and yield of the Consolidated Investments Fund for the fiscal years ended December 31st have been as follows:

	1946	1947	1948
Total number of units outstanding
(Par $10)	146,900	176,188	193,011
Gross earnings per unit	$0.417	$0.440	$0.447
Administration expense	6%	6%	6%
Expense per unit	.025	.026	.027
Net earnings per unit	$0.392	$0.414	$0.420
Average unit values	$11.40	$10.67	$10.47
Average net yields	3.42%	3.88%	4.01%

The administration charge of 6 per cent of income is charged for funds invested entirely in units. On funds not invested in units, or only partly so, the charge is $8\frac{1}{2}$ per cent on total income, on account of the larger amount of work involved. These charges do not by any means cover the full cost of operating The Church Foundation, the balance of that cost being supplied in part by the Diocese, because of the work The Church Foundation does for the Diocese, and partly by appropriations from a fund at the disposal of the Bishop and the Directors of The Church Foundation. The latter may not continue indefinitely, and if discontinued, the charge on the funds would be somewhat increased, but at that would still be far less than they would have to pay for the same services at the hands of any large Philadelphia Trust Company.

COMMISSION ON EVANGELISM

As the emphasis of the national Church, during the past winter, was on educational aspects of Evangelism the Commission endeavored to cooperate with the Adult Commission of the Department of Christian Education in promoting the study of "Successful Marriage and The Christian Family" and "The Prayer Book Speaks To Our Uncertain Age".

The chairman was invited to attend a Conference in October at Little Portion, Mt. Sinai, Long Island, conducted by The Rev. A. Gabriel Heber, of The Society of the Sacred Mission, Kelham, England, the purpose of which was to discuss ways and means of encouraging the laity to do more personal work in their own Parishes and among their business associates along definite evangelistic lines. The Report of the Conference, written by your chairman, was published in "The Living Church".

The chairman also addressed the Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Harrisburg on the subject of "Evangelism" and spoke on the same topic at an Interdenominational Service on the World Day of Prayer at St. James' Church, Kingessing. Members of the Commission, especially Mrs. Welsh Strawbridge and Miss Alice Ewing, have actively cooperated with various Diocesan groups in developing a consciousness of the need for an Apostolic zeal in winning men and women to Christ and His Church.

The Commission held a Supper-meeting, addressed by Richardson Wright, Editor of "House and Garden" on the topic, "Implementing Evangelism". One purpose of this meeting was to make arrangements for the Diocesan Service, held under the auspices of the Commission, in The Church of The Holy Trinity, on April the twenty-first. Mr. Wright made an address on "You Can Be An Evangelist". The Prayers were read by The Very Rev. Thomas Parker and the Benediction was pronounced by Bishop Remington. The Senior Choir of St. Augustine's Church sang and, preceding the Service, an Organ Recital was given by Howard S. Okie, Jr., Organist and Choirmaster of St. Peter's Church in the Great Valley.

The annual Clergy Retreat was held at Holiday House, Sellersville, by courtesy of the Rector and Vestry of The Church of The Holy Trinity, in September, 1948. The Conductor was The Rev. Father Joseph, O.S.F. Plans are being made for the 1949 Retreat at the same place.

The Commission continues to stress the absolute need of a Diocesan Center where Quiet Days and Retreats can be held during the entire year.

In conclusion the Commission requests a modest appropriation for its work and, therefore, offers the following Resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED—That the Convention appropriate from the Convention-Diocesan Fund the sum of THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($300.00) for the work of the Commission on Evangelism, which includes the work of the Diocesan Retreat Association.

J. JARDEN GUENTHER, Chairman

APPENDIX L

Report of the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions

The members of the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions have met regularly on the days of and preceding the meetings of the Executive Council. The three members of the Council, elected each year to the membership of the Commission, are thereby enabled to report to the Council any action taken by the Commission. Grants were made to the nine Parishes asking aid to enable the Rectors to receive full canonical salary allotted the Vicars and Missionaries of the Diocese. Along with the form asking for a grant, the Commission requires the budget of the Parish, and a full report of the Every Member Canvass. No grant is made until, through these mediums and sometimes personal contacts with Rectors and Accounting Wardens, the Commission is satisfied that every avenue of increasing income has been explored and the budget contains a minimum of expenditures for carrying on the parish work. It is always a satisfaction to report that some Parish has been able to fully sustain itself, which is true of two such Parishes this past year.

Dr. Hartshorne, Vice-Chairman of the Commission, gives diligent care to the matter of the Clergy Pensions. Several congregations each year fail to fulfill their obligation in this respect, which would jeopardize the grant made to widows of Clergymen, if Dr. Hartshorne did not attend to this important matter and complete payments. Again we would remind Parishes that the purpose of this grant of one thousand dollars to widows of Clergymen is made to aid the widow and not to relieve the Congregation of that customary tribute to their departed spiritual leader in the matter of paying funeral expenses.

The Commission followed the lead of the Executive Council, which increased the stipend of Vicars and Missionaries in the Diocese, and adopted a resolution to the same effect for Rectors of Aided Parishes.

Therefore be it resolved:

RESOLVED, That the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania approve the action of the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions in respect to increasing the amount of grants to Aided Parishes for the year 1949, to enable the salaries of the Rectors of such Parishes to be the same stipend as that received by Vicars and Missionaries.

In order to meet the cost of living, the salaries of Vicars, Missionaries and Rectors of Aided Parishes have been advanced from time to time either by grants or increasing salaries. It would seem that the time has come to make changes in the Resolution of Convention concerning this matter. Therefore be it resolved:

RESOLVED: That after January 1, 1949, the minimum salary of Rectors, Vicars and other Clergymen, whose stipends are paid by the Diocese, be fixed as follows:

A. At $2,700 (with Rectory or $300 for rent and pension premium) for the first year that a Clergyman has been in Holy Orders.

B. At $3,000 (with Rectory or $300 for rent and pension premium) for the Clergyman who has been in Holy Orders over one year.

The Commission further asks Convention to permit an assessment on all Parishes and Missions in 1950 for the same amount as for the year 1949, and presents the following resolution:

RESOLVED: That the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess for the work of the Commission for the year 1950 the sum of $8,000.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES M. NIBLO

APPENDIX M

Report of the Cathedral Chapter

The following Services have been conducted at the Cathedral Church of Christ regularly each Sunday:

9.00 A.M. Holy Communion, 11.00 A.M. Morning Prayer and Sermon, and 4:00 P.M. Evening Prayer and Address. The eleven o'clock Service has been conducted by the Lay Canons, while the other two have been in charge of a Clergyman. Other Services have been conducted at Christmas, Memorial Day, Diocesan Day in June and All Saints.

It is with real regret that resumption of building operations cannot be reported. The Chapter feels that the Cathedral could render most valuable aid to the work of the Diocese were the Cathedral further built and a Conventual Building erected to carry on the many activities of Diocesan scope that cannot be done at present, due to lack of space. The extension of the Choir to the Crossing and the inclusion of the Crossing in temporary sidings to the same height that the Choir would be completed, would give space to seat eight hundred persons. The Conventual Building, analogous to a Parish House, could be built so as to make use of the north wall of the Choir and the east wall of the north transept. Such a building program would enable the Cathedral to function for all Diocesan affairs, Convention, Missionary meetings, special Services, Quiet Days and a host of other affairs that should be conducted in the Chief Church of the Diocese.

Surely, in this great Diocese, there must be some who are able and desirous to further the work of the Cathedral, who will give as memorials or thank offerings to this important part of the Diocesan life.

Respectfully submitted

Report of Committee on Incorporation

I. Respecting Amendment to Model
Form of Articles of Incorporation

The Committee on Incorporation recommends for approval by the Convention the following amendments to the model form of Articles of Incorporation:

(1) Amend Article 7, Section 6, by adding at the end thereof the following:

"The names and residences of those who have been chosen vestrymen to serve until the election of their successors are:

Names	Residences
.....
.....
.....
.....

The purpose of this amendment is to restore the quoted provision which was omitted by error in the last printing of the model form of Articles of Incorporation. The Nonprofit Corporation Law requires that the Articles set forth the names and addresses of three or more persons who are to act as vestrymen until the election of their successors.

(2) Amend line 2 of Footnote No. 10 appended to the form of Article of Incorporation by deleting therefrom the word "therefore" so that the footnote will read,

"This provision is permitted by Section 214 (a) of the Nonprofit Corporation Law and is required by the General Canon 'Of Parish Vestries'."

The purpose of this amendment is merely to improve the phraseology of the footnote.

(3) Amend Footnote No. 11 by deleting therefrom all the text following the first sentence so that the footnote will read,

"This section is in conformity with the provisions of Section 502 of the Nonprofit Corporation Law."

II. Respecting Applications for Proposed Articles of Incorporation.

(1) The Committee on Incorporation has considered the application of SAINT CHRISTOPHER'S CHURCH, MEMORIAL TO DAVID GOODBREAD AND ELIZABETH L. GOODBREAD, HIS WIFE for its approval of their proposed Articles of Incorporation and their application presented to the Bishop for admission into union with the Convention of this Diocese.

The Committee finds that the proposed Articles of Incorporation are in substantial conformity with the approved form of Articles of Incorporation and that the Bishop and Standing Committee have approved the application for admission into union with the Convention of this Diocese. The Committee therefore offers the following resolutions:

RESOLVED That the proposed Articles of Incorporation of SAINT CHRISTOPHER'S CHURCH, MEMORIAL TO DAVID GOODBREAD AND ELIZABETH L. GOODBREAD, HIS WIFE be approved and that permission be given to apply to the proper court to grant the same;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED That SAINT CHRISTOPHER'S CHURCH, MEMORIAL TO DAVID GOODBREAD AND ELIZABETH L. GOODBREAD, HIS WIFE be admitted into union with this Convention and that its delegates be given seats therein, but without vote during this session.

III. Respecting Charter Amendments Made by By-Law.

On the recommendation of the Committee on Canons, the Convention in 1948 amended the Canon on Amendments of Charters to give recognition to the change made in 1947 to the Nonprofit Corporation Law, under the provisions of which it became possible for parishes to amend their Articles of Incorporation by by-law enactment insofar as such amendment relates to purely administrative matters. Under the Canon amendment as enacted by the Convention, the Committee on Incorporation is required to report to the Convention all charter amendments of this type which it has approved since the last Convention. The following charter amendments of this type have been approved by the Committee on Incorporation:

(1) Charter of the CHURCH OF ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST, Philadelphia, has been amended by by-law changing the time of the annual meeting, by designating the Rector as president of the corporation and ex-officio president of the vestry, and providing that the Rector shall preside at meetings, if present, but without vote. These amendments are in conformity with the approved form of Articles of Incorporation.

(2) Charter of the CHURCH OF THE HOLY SACRAMENT, Highland Park, by changing certain qualifications for vestrymen and for voting, by providing that the Rector shall preside at meetings if present, by changing the period required for notice of amendment to by-laws and by providing for a rotating vestry. These amendments are in conformity with the approved form of Articles of Incorporation.

Respectfully submitted,

APPENDIX O

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

Only two suggestions for changes in the Canons have been received during the year, both from Spencer Ervin, Esquire. He pointed out that if it should become necessary or desirable for the Chancellor to go into Court in the interests of the Diocese he might encounter difficulty in satisfying the Court that he was authorized to act for the Diocese in the matter, and that somewhere in the Canons there should be a statement as to by whom the Chancellor or any other lawyer should be authorized and directed to represent the Diocese in any legal proceeding. The Committee therefore recommends the adoption of the following amendment, which has the approval of the Chancellor. Amend Canon V, Section I by adding new Sub-section 4:

In any legal proceedings to secure observance of any of the Canons of the Diocese or the General Convention, or for the purpose of protecting the interests of the Church in this Diocese, the Ecclesiastical Authority as herein defined shall be authorized to act in the name of and for the Church in this Diocese.

Mr. Ervin also pointed out that in the charters of not a few older parishes there is a provision that in case the parish should discontinue work in its present location and should sell its property there, the proceeds must be used to buy or build a Church in "the same neighborhood," or in "the same part of the City." Manifestly, if a church gives up work in some particular neighborhood or part of the City it is because of changes therein, and it would be folly to start over again in the same region. Mr. Ervin pointed out that under rather recent legislation in this State the governing body in any religious organization has been given very large powers in the matter of control over the property of subordinate organizations, and that there has been as yet no judicial limitation on those powers, and suggested that a Canonical provision be adopted giving the Ecclesiastical authority and the Standing Committee power to overrule such charter provisions. The Chancellor has approved the Amendment which we now offer:

Amend Canon XII, Sec. 4,

By inserting after the word "Diocese" in the 10th line thereof the words, "anything in the Charter or By-laws to the contrary notwithstanding," and in the 5th line from the bottom, after the word "same," insert the words "in the judgment of the Ecclesiastical Authority."

THE MOTION TO LAY UPON THE TABLE

This motion, in parliamentary Law, is one of the few motions which is usually held to be undebatable, and as, if seconded, must be immediately put to a vote, it prevents all those who favor the proposition or wish to hear it more fully discussed from saying a word to that effect. Because of its possible unfairness the Committee on Canons feels that in such a gathering as our Convention the harshness of the motion should be diminished by permitting the mover of the original motion a limited opportunity to offer reasons why the debate should not be shut off, and for that purpose recommends the adoption of a new Standing Rule of Order, to be No. 8:

"When a motion to Lay upon the table is made and seconded the mover of the original motion shall have such time as the presiding officer may permit to present reasons why the motion to lay upon the table should not prevail."

RECOMMENDATIONS BY THE COMMITTEE OF ADMINISTRATIVE NEEDS OF THE DIOCESE

The Special Committee on the Administrative needs of the Diocese is reporting to this Convention certain recommended changes in the Canon on the Executive Council and has furnished the Committee on Canons with a copy of the same, which we have not printed in our report because it will be before members of the Convention in the printed report of said Committee. The Canon on Changes in the Canons provides that where changes are proposed by a committee charged with that duty such changes shall be referred to the Committee on Canons "only in order that the Committee may report specifically whether it does or does not conflict with any provision of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese or of the General Convention. Our Committee therefore reports that in their opinion the proposed changes do not conflict with any provision of the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention, and only conflicts with the Canons of this Diocese to the extent to which said proposed changes would alter the same.

While the Committee, in obedience to the above quoted canonical provision, refrains from expressing any opinion as to the wisdom or otherwise of the proposed changes of the Canon on the Executive Council, it does suggest that before the Convention acts it might be well to ask the opinion of the Executive Council on the same.

APPENDIX Q

Report of the

COMMISSION ON MUSIC

MR. NEWELL ROBINSON, Chairman

MISS ROMA ANGEL, Secretary-Treasurer

The Commission on Music makes the following report as the result of an active and successful season. Some events listed have not yet taken place, and others will be carried over into next season as a permanent part of a general program. The officers above named were re-elected, with the addition of the appointment of Miss Julia Hunn as Recording Secretary. General Committee Chairmen were appointed to serve in their own particular phase of work for the general advancement of church music. An effort has been and will be made to cover all interests and problems which arise in this wide field of endeavor. We welcome constructive criticism and useful suggestions from any who may be interested in helping our work to continue and grow in usefulness.

The Commission's paper "The Parish Choirmaster" under the able editorship of The Rev. R. S. Bailey has continued its useful purpose of notifying the clergy and choirmasters of all activities of the Commission, and has also included a tentative but very good list of wedding music, which is much in demand; also articles on the cantate problem, recorded church music, and lists of new music. We are grateful to Father Bailey for his generous help in this important work, as we are sure the paper is, and should be of great help to those who receive it.

A series of lectures on plain chant were given by Mr. Newell Robinson at St. Stephen's Church, Philadelphia, in the evening of November 9, 16, 23 and again on January 4, 11 and 18. Mr. Robinson is well qualified to teach this subject, having done much research on it and those who were present must have gained much knowledge, and stimulated to carry on their own work along these lines.

Three organization meetings for choirmasters were held to plan the organization of the permanent Diocesan Choir. These were held at St. Luke's, Germantown, — February 7; St. John's, Lansdowne, — February 14; and St. Mark's Philadelphia — February 21. Mr E. S. Siddall is the director of the choir and with the support of Bishop Hart, has worked with tireless enthusiasm to arrange three great services this spring as this season's work with the group. There will be the opening service of the Diocesan Convention at Holy Trinity Church on May 2, a Festival Service on Ascension Day night at St. Luke's, Germantown, on May 26, and the Diocesan "400th Anniversary of the Prayer Book" Service Festival Evensong at Holy Trinity Church on Whitsunday night, June 5.

A boy choir clinic was held at St. Luke's, Germantown, on Thursday afternoon, March 17, and Friday evening March 18, at which time Mr. Siddall opened two regular rehearsals to a limited group interested in the problems and methods used in this type of work. The rehearsals were conducted in the usual manner, and followed by a discussion and question period. These were most successful and greatly appreciated by those who took advantage of this opportunity.

Future plans include a Festival of Junior Choirs to be held in November. Some new publications are being planned, such as a booklet on Wedding Music, and a Bibliography on Church Music. These involve a great amount of careful work. Future lectures, services, conferences, etc., have been discussed and many topics considered.

The Commission offers the following resolution: RESOLVED, that the Commission on Music be continued, with power to fill vacancies or to add to its membership.

Respectfully submitted,

ROMA E. ANGEL, Secretary.

APPENDIX R

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON THE ADMINISTRATIVE NEEDS OF THE DIOCESE

The Committee, established by Resolution of Convention of 1945, reported to Convention of 1946 (Jnl. 34), and to Conventions of 1947 (Jnl. 35-36 and 305) and 1948 (Jnl. 34 and 339), and now submits its final Report, to which are appended Resolutions for amendments to Sections II and IV of Canon VI and one for the discharge of the Committee.

The Committee met on December 9, 1948, and on January 5 and 31, February 8, March 16 and 30, and April 7, 1949. At the meetings of December 9, January 5, and March 30 Bishop Hart was present. On January 31 the Rev. Mr. Van der Hiel, chairman of the Department of Christian Education, and the Rev. Mr. Vander Horst, chairman of the same Department's Committee on Youth, attended by invitation, and on February 8 Dr. Rowland, chairman of the Department of Christian Social Relations.

At its meeting of December 9, 1948, the Committee, in response to a request by Bishop Hart for its opinion, recommended the election of a second Suffragan whose primary task should be the direction of the missionary work of the diocese, and said that if Bishop Hart should decide to recommend to a Special Convention the election of a second Suffragan it would volunteer to hold meetings to explain the reasons for its recommendation.

The Bishop having decided to call such a Special Convention, (which met January 24 and gave the requested consent), the Committee arranged five meetings in January, attended by one or more of its members, to explain to representatives of parishes and missions, and to clergy, the reasons which induced the Committee to make its recommendation.

The Committee has consulted Mr. Isaac E. Leech, Financial Secretary of the Diocese, serving as executive of the reorganized Department of Finance, Property and Promotion. It finds that in what will become the sub-committee on Property of this Department there is need for a fund on which to draw for current repairs to mission and other properties of the diocese without the necessity of advance submission to a committee, and consequent loss of time. The Committee has made a recommendation to this effect to the Department's sub-committee on Budget.

After a conference, at one of its meetings, with the chairman of the Department of Christian Education and the chairman of this Department's sub-committee on Youth, the Committee concurred in the need for addition to the Department's staff of a trained priest to head its Youth work and endorses the action of the sub-committee on Budget of the Department of Finance, Property and Promotion in making provision accordingly in the budget for the year 1950 to be submitted to Convention of 1949.

The Committee has conferred, through a sub-committee, with the Rev. Dr. James M. Collins, Executive Director of The City Mission; with a committee representing the Board of Council of The City Mission, Dr. Collins being present; and with the Rev. Dr. E. Felix Kroman, former chairman of the Department of Christian Social Relations, and heard at one of its meetings the views of Dr. Albert L. Rowland, present chairman of the same Department. The Diocesan Canon on Institutions (XVIII) has a section (II) on The City Mission, a sub-section of which (No. 2), reads:

"The Convention commits to said Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal City Mission the religious ministrations to inmates of the penal institutions and hospitals of Philadelphia, the oversight of the charitable enterprises developed by it, and the administration of such other work as may from time to time be referred to it by this Convention."

The "charitable enterprises developed by" The City Mission include maintenance of All Saints' Hospital for the Treatment of Tuberculosis, and of the James C. Smith Memorial Home; the placement of children referred by the Juvenile Court, and a considerable amount of what is known as family social work, that is, family rehabilitation. In addition, as indicated in the above quotation, it maintains chaplains to visit the hospitals and penal institutions of Philadelphia. It is thus concerned with two of the three fields which would ordinarily fall under a Department of Institutions, Social Services, and Social Relations. (See A Survey and Study of the Christian Social Relations Program of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, printed in Jnl. 1947 at 315 ff). The present Department of Christian Social Relations has the third field. These three fields overlap and obviously belong under one Department organized with appropriate sub-committees. The Executive Council should be able at a later time to present to Convention proposals for a Department of this character which this Committee, in the time at its disposal, has not been able to work out. But it does recommend as a preliminary step that the Director of The City Mission become the executive of the Department of Christian Social Relations.

The new Department of Finance, Property and Promotion, to which is entrusted the work formerly conducted by the separate Departments of Finance, Property, Field, and Publicity, obviously will require the organization of sub-committees to take charge, respectively, of Finance, Property, Publicity, and Promotion (the last-named being the province of the present Field Department). This can be done by the Department itself and requires no action by Convention. But it is desirable that it be done soon after the adjournment of Convention so that the Department may start the new season properly organized.

It will be recalled that the Committee's plan for the reorganization of the administrative work of the diocese, as submitted to and approved in principle by Convention of 1947, called for grouping the diocesan work under four main Departments: (1) Finance, Property and Promotion; (2) Missions; (3) Education; (4) Social Relations. In the current season the Committee has devoted its time chiefly to the provision of full-time executives for two of these Departments not yet so provided. The Department of Finance, Property and Promotion has had a full-time executive since October, 1947, in the person of Mr. Leech; that of Christian Education has had one for a number of years in the person of Miss Newman. The election and consecration of an additional Suffragan will provide one for the Department of Missions, for Bishop Hart has announced that it is his intention to assign to the second Suffragan the care of the missions of the diocese. An executive for the Department of Christian Social Relations can be provided by having the Executive Director of The City Mission serve in that capacity, as above suggested.

Another of the recommendations made by this Committee in 1947 was (Jnl. 306):

"That an Executive Committee, consisting of the chairman and the full-time executive of each Department, meet regularly and frequently with the Bishop to report to him departmental plans and policies and enable him to review and integrate them."

This Executive Committee, which we now prefer to name the Administrative Committee, is proposed as a means of relieving the Executive Council of the burden of decisions on administrative detail, freeing it thus for its really important task of discussing and determining, with the Bishop, broad questions of policy. In addition the Administrative Committee should provide a better means than has hitherto been available for integrating the work of the Departments, and will be able to formulate the questions of policy to be discussed and decided by the Executive Council.

The Administrative Committee should, we believe, prepare a general program of advance for the diocese, covering missionary, educational, and other projects (such as provision for the badly-needed Retreat and Conference Center), to be executed within a period of five years. This program, after submission to and approval by the Departments and by the Executive Council, should then be referred to the sub-committee on Promotion of the Department of Finance, Property and Promotion, for adoption of such measures as may best serve to acquaint all the communicants of the diocese with the plan and its advantages, and obtain their support. We believe that wise advance planning, accompanied by participation in the actual planning by the representative communicants composing the membership of the Departments and of the Executive Council, and followed by effective publicity in the diocese at large, will provide a highly effective means of advance.

Originally the diocese had no administration beyond what was provided by one bishop who divided his time with the parish of which he was rector; the Standing Committee, and such occasional committees as any Convention might set up. Missionary work was in the hands of two volunteer societies; education was left to tract and to Bible and Prayer Book societies. A treasurer of Convention, acting with the Standing Committee, took care of finance. Then a Board of Missions was formed to succeed the two volunteer societies. The bishop was freed from parochial work. There were other developments, until in the period 1917-1922 came the extensive reorganization which gave us the Executive Council and its Departments and an office staff. This reorganization was on sound lines. But experience has shown some weaknesses. One of these has been the lack of full-time executives, to assemble the facts necessary to decisions and to carry out the decisions when made. Another has been a lack of integration. These two lacks this Committee has by its proposals attempted to supply. Although nothing short of initiative and leadership will make any plan work yet it is desirable to have a good plan. Your Committee believes that the plan which Convention of 1947 approved in principle is a good plan. It now submits canonical provisions for putting it into effect. These are limited in scope. Section II of Canon VI is re-written to provide for the reduction in the number of Departments and to define their duties, and to incorporate the duty regarding financial safeguards now found in Section IV which belongs logically in Section II, and to add the duty of enforcing the Canon Of the Mode of Securing an Accurate View of the State of the Church. Otherwise, Section II remains substantially unchanged. The only change in Section IV, beyond the provision of numbers for two sub-paragraphs, is the addition of a paragraph providing for the proposed Administrative Committee.

Mr. Jared Ingersoll was out of town for the last three meetings of the Committee and was absent when this Report was sent in for printing. His name is therefore not appended to the Report.

Report of TRUSTEES OF THE CHRISTMAS FUND

The Trustees of the Christmas Fund during the year ending December 31, 1948, disbursed $6,143.33 to a total of 20 beneficiaries. At the beginning of the year there were 17 beneficiaries, 3 were added during the year and 4 were removed on account of death, leaving 16 on the list at the end of the year. Two more have been added for 1949, making the current number 18 to whom grants have been awarded at a total annual rate of $5,820.

The principal fund was increased $973.48 from 1947 Christmas collections. Of special note was the sum of $1130. given in memory of the late Rev. John E. Hill, of which $1000 was presented by the congregation of All Saints Church, Moyamensing, at a service attended by Bishop Hart on December 21, 1947.

The Fund continues its modest assistance to eligible persons and the Trustees believe, judging from the gratefulness with which the grants are received, that it is of great assistance to beneficiaries.

By order of the Trustees

Corporation for Christian Work in Educational Institutions

The Episcopal Church is now engaged in special student work in nine of the major colleges and universities of this Diocese. The Corporation provides financial assistance to promote our work in six of these educational institutions. Episcopal student organizations are not always feasible or possible in a number of cases. The policy of certain institutions either prohibits or makes it extremely difficult for the most effective type of student work. However, we can claim five Episcopal Canterbury Clubs—all of which are members of the National Association of Canterbury Clubs. This means that they meet the general requirements of prayer, study, service, giving, evangelism and unity. These Canterbury Clubs are under the following directors:

The Rev. Thomas A. Meryweather, Temple University

The Rev. Allen F. Kremer, University of Pennsylvania

The Rev. Edward Platts, Ursinus College

The Rev. Matthew W. Davis, Lincoln University

The Rev. George C. Anderson, Swarthmore College

Further points of contact for college work are:

St. Mary's Church, Ardmore, for Haverford College

St. Paul's, Chester, for Pennsylvania Military College

All Hallow's, Wyncote, for Beaver College

Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, for Bryn Mawr College

Trinity Church, West Chester,
for West Chester State Teachers' College

The Church's one means of contact with Lincoln University and Cheyney State Teachers College is provided by The Rev. Matthew W. Davis, who visits each institution twice every month.

In a move to strengthen college work on a wide scale in the Diocese special Sunday evening services are now held for college students in the Memorial Church of the Advocate and in St. Mary's Church, Hamilton Village. Services are under the direction of the Rev. Thomas A. Meryweather and the Rev. Allen F. Kremer. While students from Temple University and the University of Pennsylvania form the nucleus of each group it is hoped that these services will provide a focal point for students from the many smaller institutions throughout the city.

Early in the fall a small conference for Diocesan College workers was held in the Christian Association of the University of Pennsylvania. This provided an excellent opportunity for frank and informal discussion of the techniques and problems relating to college work. It was agreed that a most important task facing the church is religious education on the college level. In most institutions of learning there is little or no opportunity provided for the coordination of religious teaching with the ordinary courses of study. The Church must on its own initiative supply this deficiency. It was further agreed to hold a conference for representatives of the student bodies of the major institutions of this diocese. This conference to take place in May will be sponsored by the Corporation in cooperation with the Provincial Division of College Work.

Respectfully submitted,

ALLEN F. KREMER, Executive Secretary

APPENDIX U

Report of the COMMITTEE ON THE FUND FOR THE EPISCOPATE

The Committee desires to exchange its present cumbersome title for the simpler one of The Committee on the Fund for the Episcopate.

Since last Convention, the full Committee has met on September 28, 1948, and the Executive Committee has met on June 9, 1948 and January 24, 1949.

Since its Report to Convention of 1948 (Jnl. 36 and 345) the Committee has used additional means of making known the purposes and value of the Fund.

Additional copies of the illustrated brochure prepared for the Committee by Mr. John Falkner Arndt have been distributed. The condensed History of the Fund referred to in the Report for 1948 has been printed and distributed. Short items on the Fund have been supplied to the clergy for printing in parish or mission leaflets. In some parishes speakers have presented the cause of the Fund. A dinner to the clergy October 11 at The Barclay was addressed on behalf of the Fund by Bishop Hart, Chancellor McCracken, and Senator George Wharton Pepper. An advertisement, and a short article on the Fund, have appeared in each issue of The Church News.

The Committee's publicity emphasizes legacies as painless perpetual gifts; the principal, under the able care of The Church Foundation, yields a permanent benefit. Nevertheless the Committee welcomes gifts from the living and has received them, during 1948, to the extent of $20,000; its capital has thus been increased from $182,380.69 as of December 31, 1947 to $202,971.61 as of December 31, 1948.

In an address to the congregation of St. John's, Lansdowne, Mr. Freas B. Snyder gave some interesting figures of per capita endowment which we here repeat:

	Communicants	Per capita endowment
Diocese of Bethlehem	20,042	$12.40
Diocese of Pittsburgh	20,462	15.70
Diocese of Rhode Island	30,685	8.75
Diocese of Western Mass.	18,485	13.65
Diocese of PENNSYLVANIA	74,440	3.12

We are much indebted to Mr. Snyder and to the other laymen who have taken time to present the Fund to their own or other congregations:

Messrs. Loring Dam, Frank Chesterman, E. Lowber Stokes, Marshall S. Morgan and C. Jared Ingersoll.

And we do not wish to fail to thank the clergy who allowed these addresses:

The Rev. Messrs. Charles E. Tuke, H. B. Satcher, John Vander Horst, John K. Coolidge, John C. Knewstub, Nathanael B. Groton, as well as the clergy who have given permission for future addresses:

The Rev. Messrs.: Wm. LaRue Witmer, Thomas W. S. Logan, Arthur L. M. Worthey, Jacob A. Winterstein, Charles Francis Ehly, S. Atmore Caine, John R. Hart, Harry Ingram Fell, C. J. Atkinson, Thomas Parker, Frederick B. Hornby and James Mills, or those who printed our material in their leaflets:

The Rev. Messrs.: Nathanael B. Groton, J. A. Winterstein, G. W. Barnes, Stanley R. West, T. Norman Mason, C. J. Atkinson, Thomas S. Logan, E. C. Earp, Arthur Murray, Lars R. Bache-Wiig, W. H. Aulenbach, Thomas

A. Meryweather, J. Aubrey Cragg, James M. Niblo, Paul R. R. Reinhardt, Wm. LaRue Witmer, or aided the work of the Committee in other ways.

We submit a Resolution the purpose of which appears in its Preamble.

"WHEREAS the Committee on the Fund for the Episcopate, heretofore known as The Committee for the Enlargement of the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate, has operated since its establishment in 1943 under the authority of the Bishop alone, and in the view of the Bishop and of the Committee it is desirable that the authorization of the Convention be also given;

"NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that Convention hereby confirms the establishment of this Committee under its new title "The Committee on the Fund for the Episcopate" and directs that it shall consist of such communicants of this Diocese, without restriction as to number, as the Bishop shall annually appoint."

Submitted for the Committee:

CLARENCE M. BROWN, Chairman

APPENDIX V

Report of the COMMITTEE ON PAROCHIAL HISTORY FOR 1948

The Committee on Parochial History appointed by Convention has met three times during the year, on the last Fridays of October, January and April, respectively.

A questionnaire was prepared and sent to every parish and mission asking for brief data concerning its origin and other historical highlights. Copies of written histories, where available were also requested. So far 100 parishes have responded and the information has been recorded on cards, and the histories filed for reference among the histories gathered in past years. A tabulation of this historical information of the present active parishes of the Diocese is being prepared for the information of the Diocese. We believe that considerable interest has been created, and that many parishes have for the first time searched back to discover something of their origins. It appears, however, that many parishes lack information about their history and we urge upon them the compiling of historical facts about their parishes.

An exhibit of interesting and rare historical documents both of the Diocese and of parishes is on continuous display in the Church House.

Two members of this committee have resigned during the year, the Rev. Crosswell McBee and Mr. G. W. Pepper, Jr. We recommend the appointment of the Rev. Dr. William W. Manross and Mr. Frank V. Burton to replace them.

According to the Canons of the Diocese, the membership of this Committee may be as many as twenty persons. We recommend therefore the appointment of a larger Committee to help in carrying on the work assigned to us.

Respectfully submitted,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Chairman.

APPENDIX W

Report of the Committee on Church Furnishings

This Committee which was established in pursuance of the terms of a Resolution adopted at the Diocesan Convention of 1948, consists of the following gentlemen:

Ronald J. McCarthy, Chairman

Mr. James M. B. Keyser

Mr. William R. Talbot

Mr. Isaac E. Leech

Mr. William H. Thompson

Mr. Edward S. Morris

Mr. W. Beaumont Whitney, Jr.

The date of the appointment of the Committee did not permit an official meeting until the Fall; but, with their approval, a preliminary letter was sent to all parishes and missions, asking for a report on such surplus property as might be available for distribution by the Committee to other churches and missions in need of various specified items. The purpose of this letter was to fulfill one of the two main objectives of the Committee, to wit:

1. To assist and guide parishes and missions in the disposition of surplus property; and
2. To inventory the particularly valuable items of property in the possession of parishes and missions—such as stained glass windows, communion plate, memorials, etc.

Though, perhaps, the timing of the letter during the Summer season was not the best, the Committee regretfully points out that responses to their letter and questionnaire were disappointingly few. Therefore, after the information collected had been properly classified and card-indexed, the Committee held several meetings during the Fall and Winter; and have determined to address to the parishes and missions a more comprehensive letter and a more comprehensive questionnaire, which the Committee hopes will go out almost immediately after the Diocesan Convention of 1949. In addition to the advantage of having the letter go out in the Spring, it will, we believe, be more fully explanatory and will furnish a better-arranged and more complete questionnaire than was furnished in 1948. In addition, it will ask the parishes and missions to permit, during the course of the coming Diocesan year, a representative of the Committee to appear before vestries or property committees of vestries and explain to them the proposed methods of operation, particularly in obtaining information that will allow the second objective to be accomplished—the inventorying of valuable articles.

The Committee earnestly bespeaks the cooperation of all rectors and vestries, so that it may adequately perform the duties to which it has addressed itself.

Respectfully submitted,

RONALD J. MCCARTHY,
Chairman

APPENDIX X

Report of the BOARD OF CONTROL OF THE DIOCESAN LIBRARY FOR 1948

During the past year, eleven magazines were subscribed for and placed in the rack for public use. Eighty books were purchased and placed on the shelves. An average of 45 books were out at a time. Lists of new books were advertised in the Church News, and cards calling attention to same were mailed.

During the summer the books and bookcases were thoroughly gone over and cleaned. The books were placed in their proper order, alphabetically according to author and under the subject on which they are written. Each book was checked with the catalogue. Cards were pulled out of the catalogue for books missing, and made for books which had no catalogue card. Labels were pasted on books where the title and name of the author were not discernible. Some books which were duplicates, or no longer usable, were discarded, to make room for others.

It is now easy to find a book by looking in the section labeled for the subject needed, and to find the author according to the alphabet. If it is not found to be in Room 12 under the above arrangement, or if it is a new book, it may be found in Room 11 in the bookcase by the mirror where they are also arranged alphabetically according to authors. Books may be located by looking in the catalogue, Room 37, third floor, or by calling the Librarian who is pleased to help find a book for you. Books may be checked out at the Information Window.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE COPELAND, Secretary.

APPENDIX Y

Report of the Diocesan Committee Appointed by the Bishop to Review the Relationship Between the Diocese and the Academy of the Protestant Episcopal Church

Your Committee has met, has gathered and reviewed the facts, including material as to the relationship between other Episcopal Schools and their respective Diocesan bodies and it begs leave to report as follows:

1. The Episcopal Academy is a live, vital organization creditable to the Church and to its Faculty and Trustees and the boys who make up its student body.

2. It operates under a charter originally granted to it in 1785 by the Pennsylvania legislature and since recognized by the courts, under which the managing body is a Board of Trustees who elect succeeding trustees. The Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania is always a member of the Board and its Honorary President. The Bishop regularly attends Board meetings and is active in the affairs of the School. The other members of the Board are laymen and include the Headmaster. The School has a permanent Chaplain chosen with the approval of the Bishop.

3. Daily chapel services are held and Sacred Studies is a required course for every grade in the School from the time of the arrival of the youngest boys to their graduation. The School includes boys of many religious faiths, approximately 60 per cent being Episcopalians. The scholastic standing of the School is high and practically all of the graduates of the School gain entrance to college.

4. The relationship between the School and the Diocese of Pennsylvania is generally similar to and probably somewhat closer than that between other similar Protestant-Episcopal Schools and their respective Dioceses. Your Committee sees no ground for disturbing the very satisfactory relationship which has existed for many years between the Diocese and the School if, in addition to the Bishop, the Board of Trustees shall include in its membership a man learned and experienced in religious education.

Respectfully submitted,

APPENDIX Z

Report of the Committee on Christian World Order

Our report this year will be very brief inasmuch as we have done little during the year to function as a Diocesan Committee. In November, we called the parishes to a day of prayer for the United Nations and had printed "A Litany of the Nations" prepared by the Very Reverend John Suter, Dean of the Washington Cathedral. This was greatly in demand and was used widely throughout the Diocese. However, your Committee have attended meetings of the Foreign Policy Association and of the United Nations Council of Philadelphia and one of us has served on the Board of Foreign Policy and another on the Board of Directors of the United Nations Council of Philadelphia. These two organizations have merged recently under the name of the World Affairs Council which will function in even larger ways as a forum for public opinion and with a wider program of education than hitherto. Mr. Edward Morris has been elected to serve on this new Board and will represent us and reflect the point of view of the Episcopal Church. We have found many fellow members of the Church at these meetings and we have come to feel that the speakers at these gatherings had a knowledge and an authority which we could hardly duplicate in any Diocesan or parish discussion groups. Such groups have been continued in some places under parochial guidance.

The task of keeping our membership well informed in international affairs and its ever changing scene will now have to be left to the rectors and lay leadership in each parish. We urge upon them the insistent need for bringing to bear upon the thinking of their membership the Christian ethic that we may win for all men a just and enduring peace in a world that no longer can endure man's inhumanity to man.

Under the circumstances, we feel that your Committee on Christian World Order should be discharged from any further duties as a Diocesan Committee and we therefore offer the following resolution:

Journal of 1949

Whereas the Committee on Christian World Order feels that its initial efforts to inform the parishes of the nature and function of the United Nations and the ever-changing scene in international affairs has been accomplished.

And whereas the need for further information and education is now being carried on much more efficiently by international and City-wide groups.

BE IT RESOLVED, That this Committee be discharged and its duties carried on by parishes and groups within the Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy, as follows:

Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese but not entitled to vote in the convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in this Church, Wardens of Missions other than those entitled to send Deputies, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, including the Lay Members of the Standing Committee, the Officers of the Executive Council and the Executive Officer of the Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal City Mission, though not members, shall be admitted to seats and have a voice in the Convention, but not the right to vote.

The Bishop addressed the Convention thanking the Deputies for a fine attendance and explaining the reasons for the Call.

The Chair recognized The Reverend Dr. Franklin Joiner, President of The Standing Committee, who presented the following

RESOLUTIONS:

RESOLVED, That this Convention hereby gives its consent to the Diocesan's request for a Bishop Suffragan.

RESOLVED, that this Convention authorize the Standing Committee to secure at once the consent of a majority of the Bishops and the several Standing Committees for the election of a Bishop Suffragan in the diocese of Pennsylvania.

RESOLVED, that, presuming this consent will be given by a majority of the Bishops and the several Standing Committees, the stated Convention of the Diocese place on the Order of the Day the election of a Bishop Suffragan as the last order of business, and when the election of a Bishop Suffragan is reached on the Order of the Day, the Convention recess until Wednesday, May 11, 1949, at 9:30 a.m., when the only order of the day will be the election of a Bishop Suffragan.

RESOLVED, that the salary and allowances of the new Bishop Suffragan shall be the same as those of the present Suffragan.

The Chair recognized the Reverend Dr. James M. Collins, who presented the following RESOLUTION, which on Motion was adopted:

WHEREAS, The Special Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania meeting in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square, Philadelphia, Monday, January 24, 1949, has given its consent to the Bishop's request for the assistance of a Suffragan Bishop, provided a majority of the Bishops and several Standing Committees consent to the election of a Suffragan Bishop in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED,

That the Bishop of the Diocese, The President of this Special Convention, is hereby authorized to appoint a "Committee of Seven," communicants from the Diocese of Pennsylvania, four clerical and three lay, which Committee shall receive nominations for the office of a Suffragan Bishop. The Committee of Seven shall report to the next Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania from nominations received by them not more than five names as nominees of this Committee for the office of Suffragan Bishop.

The President appointed the Committee on Nominations as follows: The Rev. John W. Walker, Convener, the Rev. William N. Lanigan, the Rev. Albert Ormsby Judd, the Rev. Philemon F. Sturges, Mr. Daniel A. Newhall, Mr. C. Brewster Rhoades and Mr. Robert W. Stuart.

The Secretary asked leave to speak concerning the date upon which Parish Annual Reports are due and a Resolution adopted by the Executive Council

Inasmuch as Canon V of the General Canons requires that the Parochial Report be in the hand of the Diocese by the first of February,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that all congregations be notified by the Committee on Financial Safeguards that hereafter the Parochial Report be presented by this date and that the financial statement, if an audit has not already been made, be signed by the Auditor or Accounting Warden, stating that the financial books of the Congregation were audited and found correct last year and will be audited as soon as possible.

The Rev. Messrs. Rasmusson and Trowbridge addressed the Convention concerning the reception of Displaced Persons.

The Rev. Wm. R. McKean offered the following Resolutions both of which were adopted:

RESOLVED, That the bill for the installation of the Public Address System and other expenses connected with the Special Convention be approved and referred to the Committee on Expenses.

RESOLVED, That the thanks of the Convention be tendered to the Rector, Wardens, and Vestry of the Church of The Holy Trinity for the use of the church for the meeting of the Convention.

The Bishop addressed the Convention informing the members that on May 3rd the Convention would be asked to accept or reject the proposed Missionary Budget for 1950. There seems to be a question in the minds of some persons in regard the amount the Diocese should accept as its share for the Missionary Program of the Church. The Bishop requested vestries to study the Budget and deputies to come to Convention prepared to vote and not to refer the matter to a Committee.

The Special Convention adjourned sine die at 5:10 P.M.
